1995-96 MEDIA INFORMATION

Welcome to the 1995-96 National Basketball Association season. As the Phoenix Suns begin their 28th NBA season, you can be sure to expect many exciting moments. It is also our fourth year in the America West Arena, which has proven to be one of the most accessible arenas in the league. In an effort to continue to provide a professional working environment, please note the following guidelines we have established for the upcoming season:

Media credentials are issued to working media only. All season and individual game credential holders should enter through the northeast entrance off 3rd Street and Jefferson. Media will-call opens two and one-half hours prior to the game. All credentials are non-transferable, and any unauthorized use will subject bearer to ejection from the America West Arena and confiscation of the pass.

Season media passes will be issued to recognized newspapers, magazines, television and established radio stations making reasonable requests on company letterhead. Please indicate those persons who will be using each pass. It is important that season pass holders notify this office of their intentions to cover a game in order to reserve press seating.

Individual game credentials should be requested through the Suns' Media Relations Department a minimum of 30 hours prior to game time or by 1:30 p.m. Friday for all Saturday, Sunday and Monday contests. Our fax number is (602) 530-2255. Pre-arranged passes may be picked up at the media will-call located inside the northeast entrance. Absolutely NO passes will be issued on game day. Credentials will be issued on an availability-only basis, only requests confirmed via phone by the Media Relations Department will be honored.

Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, media room and both locker rooms. Both the Suns and visiting locker rooms will be open up to 45 minutes before the game and then again 10 minutes after the game. Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere. Absolutely NO autographs allowed during media access periods.

Interviews which need advance preparation or special accommodation by a Suns player or staff member should be made by contacting the Suns' Media Relations Department. This includes live television interviews for pre- and post-game.

Photo credentials will be issued in the same manner as other passes. Weekly papers and magazines on assignment may obtain passes by having the photo editor request a single game credential. It is club policy NOT to allow freelance photographers access. ALL photographers must have an arm band in order to gain floor access. The arm bands can be obtained at the media will-call check in.

Telephones for the working media should be ordered through Vicki Berryman at the America West Arena (602) 379-2099. Facsimile service is available by contacting the Suns' Media Relations Department prior to to the game.

Statisticians are available to assist radio and television broadcasts by contacting the Suns' Media Relations Department. These services must be arranged far in advance, and once they are made, the statistician must be compensated whether or not used.

We hope that this outline of procedures and guidelines will assist you in your coverage of the National Basketball Association in the America West Arena. Please don't hesitate to call the Media Relations Department at (602) 379-7920 if you need additional assistance.

Best regards,

THE PHOENIX SUNS... A FAN-TASTIC STORY

THE BEGINNING...

On January 22, 1968, the NBA Board of Governors awarded a franchise to the city of Phoenix. The new team's leadership came from owners Richard Bloch of Los Angeles along with Donald Pitt and Donald Diamond of Tucson. They brought together a group of investors that included entertainers Henry Mancini, Tony Curtis, Ed Ames, Andy Williams and Bobby Gentry.

Jerry Colangelo, former University of Illinois basketball star and member of the Chicago Bulls' organization, was selected as the club's first general manager at the age of 28. Soon after, he named Bulls coach Johnny "Red" Kerr as the franchise's first head coach. The name "Suns" was chosen through a contest that saw over 28,000 entries submitted. Since several entries were marked "Suns," a drawing was held and Selinda King of Phoenix was selected as the person who officially named the new franchise.

In the May 6, 1968 Expansion Draft, Dick Van Arsdale, who was left unprotected by New York, became the "The Original Sun." He scored the club's first point, 12,060 as a Sun, and later had his jersey - "5" - retired.

The Suns played their first game on October 18, 1968, and defeated Seattle, 116-107, before 7,112 fans at Veterans Memorial Coliseum. However, Phoenix won only 15 of the next 81 games to finish at 16-66. The franchise was buoyed by the hope that it might land the nation's top collegiate player, Lew Alcindor, in the NBA Draft. In a coin flip between the Eastern and Western Conference teams with the poorest records (Milwaukee and Phoenix), the Suns called "heads" and watched as the coin showed "tails." Milwaukee claimed Alcindor, later known as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, and captured the NBA title two years later.

Success, however, came more quickly for Phoenix than skeptics first thought when the Suns won a second coin flip and the rights to ABA star Connie Hawkins. Hawkins had been banned from the NBA for seven years because of unfounded implications of association with gamblers during his college days at the University of Iowa.

With "The Hawk" in full swoop, the Suns made the playoffs in their second season, battling the LA Lakers to the seven game limit in the conference semifinals. With the emergence of eventual four-time All-Star and NBA Hall of Famer Hawkins, and the Suns' playoff performance, the Suns had finally arrived on the NBA roadmap.

Several coaching changes occured during the next three seasons which saw Colangelo himself on the bench, Lowell "Cotton" Fitzsimmons, Bill Van Breda Kolff, and ultimately John MacLeod in 1973.

... THE GREATEST GAME EVER PLAYED

Following two tough seasons under former University of Oklahoma head coach MacLeod, things brightened when the 1975-76 club, headed by NBA Rookie of the Year Alvan Adams and Paul Westphal, parlayed a 42-40 record and a wild card playoff berth into their first Western Conference title and a trip to the NBA Finals to face Boston — and its storied past. Game Five of that series has been called "the greatest game ever played," as Boston won 128-126 in a triple-overtime thriller. The Celtics eventually captured the title, 4-2, but the "Sunderella" Suns demonstrated that they had come a long way in just eight seasons.

A down year in 1976-77 was followed by a span of six seasons in which the Suns averaged nearly 52 wins, including a Western Conference Finals trip following the 1978-79 season. The next four campaigns, beginning with 1983-84, saw the team slowed by injuries and Lady Luck's wicked step-sister - Bad Luck. The team made the playoffs in 1983-84 with a 41-41 record and lost in six games to the Lakers in the Western Conference Finals. The club slipped to 36-46 the following season as 266 player/games were missed due to injury or illness. Included in that bunch was All-Star Walter Davis, who missed 59 games.

In 1985-86 only two players were able to suit up for all 82 games. The Suns began the season with an 0-9 mark and never recovered, finishing at 32-50. MacLeod used 20 different starting combinations in 1986-87, while trying to work in five rookies, and finished 36-46. After 14 seasons, MacLeod was released on February 26, 1987. Van Arsdale was named interim head coach before Suns assistant coach, John Wetzel, took over on April 27, 1987.

PHOENIX RISING ...

On October 14, 1987, Colangelo led a group of Phoenix-area investors that purchased the team from its original owners for $44.5 million. Colangelo was named president and chief executive officer.

After a 28-54 finish in 1987-88, Wetzel was replaced by Fitzsimmons — his second stint as Suns head coach. And, on February 25, 1988, he laid the groundwork for one of the biggest turnarounds in NBA history by trading leading scorer Larry Nance to Cleveland with Mike Sanders and a first-round pick for Kevin Johnson, Mark West, Tyrone Corbin and first- and second-round picks. Fitzsimmons wasn't finished. On July 5, 1988, the Suns made history by signing the NBA's first unrestricted free agent - All-Star Tom Chambers of Seattle.

A revamped 1988-89 Suns squad had just one holdover player, Jeff Hornacek, remaining from two seasons before. Colangelo also hired Westphal and Lionel Hollins as assistant coaches. The Suns finished with a 55-27 mark and were the NBA's top scoring team. The 27-game turnaround was the third biggest in league history. After a frenetic run to the playoffs, the Suns were swept by the Lakers in the conference finals. Phoenix garnered an NBA-record four post-season awards: Coach of the Year (Fitzsimmons), Most Improved Player (KJ), Sixth Man (Eddie Johnson) and Executive of the Year (Colangelo). Chambers and KJ were also named second team All-NBA.

During 1988-89, Colangelo moved ahead with ambitious plans for a new downtown arena that the Suns could call home. In a unique partnership with the city of Phoenix, the $89 million America West Arena was born. Construction of the Arena began during the summer of 1990.

The Suns continued to roll in 1989-90, posting a 54-28 record and, for the first time, defeated the Lakers in the playoffs, beating them 4-1 in the semifinals, before falling to Portland, 2-4, in the conference finals. The Suns posted 55 wins during the 1990-91 season and once again had their fastbreak offense in gear. On November 10, 1990, the Suns set an NBA-record for points in a half with 107 in the first half of a 173-143 victory over Denver at the Coliseum. The Suns' final tally of 173 also set an NBA-record for most points scored in a non-overtime game. However, injuries derailed the club as the Suns made a first round exit against Utah. In 1991-92, the Suns finished at 53-29, but fell to Portland in the semifinals - the Suns' last game at the "Madhouse on McDowell" was a thrilling 153-151 double-overtime loss in Game Four.

... A NEW ERA

Celebrating their 25th Anniversary, Phoenix rocked the basketball world with one of the biggest trades in NBA history. On June 17, 1992, the team acquired All-Star Charles Barkley from Philadelphia for Hornacek, Tim Perry, and Andrew Lang. Veteran Danny Ainge also joined the team. On November 7, 1992, the Suns opened their new home, the America West Arena, with new head coach Westphal, a new logo, and new uniforms.

The 1992-93 season included a franchise-best 14-0 December, and a strong showing at the All-Star game where Barkley, Majerle, Cedric Ceballos, and Suns coaches represented the team. Colangelo, whose tenure running the same team is exceeded only by Boston's Red Auerbach, was named Executive of the Year for an unprecedented fourth time. Barkley earned the NBA's Most Valuable Player award and the Suns finished the season with a club-record and league-leading 62 wins.

The Suns also made NBA playoff history by coming back to beat the Lakers in the opening round after losing the first two games at home. They defeated San Antonio in six games, and Seattle in seven to capture their second Western Conference banner. They were returning to the NBA Finals for the first time since 1976. After losing the first two games at home to two-time World Champion Chicago, the Suns went to the Windy City and won two of three games, including a 129-121 triple overtime affair in Game Three. Phoenix lost the series when John Paxson hit a three-pointer with 3.9 seconds left in Game Six at Phoenix.

During the summer of 1993, the Suns landed free agent A.C. Green. Although injuries played a significant role down the stretch, Phoenix still finished with its third-best record in franchise history at 56-26. During that season, the Suns retired Walter Davis' jersey - "6". The Suns began the playoffs by sweeping Golden State. Barkley amazed fans in Game Three when he scored 27-straight points in the first quarter without a missing a shot and finished with 56, the third-highest total in NBA playoff history. However, Barkley's ailing back gave way in the conference semifinals against eventual champion Houston, as the Suns lost in seven games.

RELOADING ...

In the summer of 1994, Barkley began a rehab program for his back, while KJ and Majerle represented the U.S. at the World Championships in Toronto. The Suns acquired sharpshooter Wesley Person along with Antonio Lang in the 1994 NBA draft. All-Star Danny Manning, Wayman Tisdale, and Dan Schayes joined the Suns as free agents. The Suns had six current or former All-Stars on the roster and looked primed to capture their first title, but injuries haunted the club. Barkley missed the first 11 games with a strained abdominal muscle and KJ missed 35 with a variety of leg problems. The most severe injury came on February 6, 1995, with the Suns holding the league's best record at 33-8, when Manning tore the anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee. He would miss the rest of the season.

The 45th annual NBA All-Star game was held at AWA, with Barkley and Majerle starting on the winning West squad coached by Westphal. Person was coached by Fitzsimmons on the winning team in the Schick Rookie Game. He also won the Baby Ruth Shootout by defeating his big brother, Chuck, of San Antonio in the final round. After the break, the Suns struggled, yet managed to win their second Pacific Division title in three seasons and earn the second seed in the playoffs behind San Antonio. They swept Portland in the first round, and faced Houston, for the second-straight season, in the semifinals. The Suns won three of the first four, but the World Champions beat the Suns in three-straight on their way to a second-straight title.

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

PRESIDENT
CHIEF EXEC. OFFICER

Through hard work and bold moves, Suns President and CEO Jerry Colangelo has turned a city once deemed too "western" for an NBA franchise into a global attraction. It has been 27 years since he arrived in Arizona, and his commitment to bringing an NBA title to Phoenix has never been more evident. The Suns have become the model professional basketball franchise and one of the most highly respected in any sport.

FRANCHISE RANKINGS

Under Colangelo, who has earned an unprecedented four NBA Executive of the Year awards (1993, '89, '81, '76), the Suns have posted seven consecutive 50-plus win seasons (the last three have produced an average of 56 victories), including a franchise-best 62 wins in 1992-93. They have advanced to the Western Conference Finals three of those seven seasons, with one trip to the NBA Finals in 1993. Over the same seven seasons the Suns' regular season record of 394-180 (.686) is tops in the NBA, followed by Chicago at 389-185 (.677). In fact, with Colangelo pulling the strings, the Suns rank as the NBA's third-winningest franchise (953-687, .581) over the last 20 seasons. This past year, he was ranked nationally as the 20th most powerful person in sports by The Sporting News, and has been named most influential businessperson in the Valley for the third straight year by The Arizona Business Journal.

BUILDING A TITLE CONTENDER

After purchasing the franchise on October 14, 1987, Colangelo made a series of bold moves to help build a championship team. First was the blockbuster trade on February 25, 1988 that brought Kevin Johnson, Mark West and a first-round draft pick to Phoenix. That pick would become Dan Majerle. In May of 1988, he named Cotton Fitzsimmons as head coach, and in July, he inked the first unrestricted free agent in NBA history, Tom Chambers. By the end of the following season the club had posted 55 wins.

The Suns maintained that success over the next three seasons, reaching the Western Conference Finals one more time (1990). After Fitzsimmons stepped down as head coach, Colangelo hired Paul Westphal, a former Sun and Fitzsimmons' top assistant during the previous four seasons. And, on June 17, 1992, Colangelo made one of the biggest deals in club history by acquiring All-Star forward Charles Barkley from the Philadelphia 76ers in exchange for Jeff Hornacek, Andrew Lang and Tim Perry. But Colangelo wasn't finished assembling the 1992-93 Suns, and in July signed unrestricted free agent guard Danny Ainge. The revitalized Suns, playing in their new, state-of-the-art America West Arena, enjoyed their best season ever in 1992-93. The Suns won their second Pacific Division and Western Conference titles and finished with their first-ever 60-win season and the best overall record in the league at 62-20.

The summer of 1993 yielded more positive results. After coming up a little short in the 1993 NBA Finals, Colangelo was aggressive in the free agent market — and once again successful. He landed unrestricted free agent A.C. Green and center Joe Kleine. During the summer of 1994, he again tapped into the free agent market to maintain one of the NBA's best frontlines by re-signing Green and acquiring All-Star forward Danny Manning and Wayman Tisdale.

AMERICA WEST ARENA

Colangelo's vision of what a downtown sports arena would mean to the city of Phoenix became shining reality in 1992. The 19,023-seat America West Arena became the centerpiece for a revitalization of the downtown area that has helped Phoenix become one of the most admired cities in America. Colangelo was the driving force behind the effort to bring the arena to downtown Phoenix. It was under his direction that it was designed, and under his guidance that it is managed. The arena, a unique partnership between the Suns and the City of Phoenix, is a catalyst for the rebirth of downtown Phoenix with a projected 200 events and two million patrons annually.

THE ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS

In addition to his leadership of the Suns, Colangelo was busy in 1994-95 as one of the guiding lights for an investment group which, on March 9, landed a Major League Baseball franchise — The Arizona Diamondbacks. On behalf of the potential ownership group, he negotiated a deal with the Maricopa County Board of Supervisors that enabled the county (stadium district) to fund roughly $253 million toward the completion of a downtown stadium. Ground-breaking on the BANK ONE BALLPARK is scheduled for the Fall of 1995.

SUCCESS STARTS AT THE TOP

As the old adage goes, success starts at the top. For the past 27 years the man at the top has been Colangelo. Hired as the Suns' first general manager on March 1, 1968, Colangelo, then 28, was the youngest general manager in professional sports. His tenure running the same franchise is exceeded by only the legendary Red Auerbach of the Boston Celtics.

A 29-year veteran of the NBA, Colangelo continued in the capacity of general manager until October of 1987 when he led a group that purchased the Suns franchise for $44.5 million. Since that time, Colangelo has served as the Suns' president and chief executive officer.

The success on the court has led to new team attendance records in each of the last seven seasons. The club's first season at America West Arena set a record for single season attendance (779,943) and the club matched that in '94-95 while their regular season consecutive sellout mark was extended to 223 games.

Colangelo serves in several advisory capacities for the NBA, including the Board of Governors, the Finance Committee, and the Long Range Planning Committee. He was chairman of the Expansion Committee that welcomed Toronto and Vancouver into the league for the 1995-96 season, and served as chairman of the Competition and Rules Committee for four years. He also serves on the Honors Committee of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Massachusetts.

In the Community

Highly regarded for his commitment to the community, Colangelo is actively involved in numerous Phoenix organizations. He is on the Board of Directors of the Phoenix Art Museum, Greater Phoenix Economic Council, Phoenix Community Alliance and Phoenix Suns Charities. He is also vice president of the Phoenix Downtown Partnership and is chairman of the Southwest Leadership Foundation.

He is also a member of the Arizona State University College of Business Dean's Council of 100. He was named 1990 Phoenix Entrepreneur of the Year by the ASU College of Business and was honored in 1991 by the Phoenix Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America for exemplary corporate public relations. He is a lifetime member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds, an organization dedicated to the promotion of Phoenix through sports. He is a former president of the Valley Big Brothers and is currently chairman of the board of the Christian Businessmen's Club. He has been honored by the Phoenix Jaycees, the Boy's Clubs and the Boy Scouts. He is also a director and principal of Stratford American Corporation, a real estate development company.

How It Began

In addition to his front office duties, Colangelo has twice stepped in to coach the Suns. He took over for Johnny Kerr on January 2, 1970 and guided the club to its first playoff appearance and a 24-20 record that year. He also replaced Butch van Breda Kolff early in the 1972-73 season and compiled a 35-40 mark. Overall, he has a 59-60 record as an NBA coach.

Colangelo began his sports management career as the head scout and director of merchandising for the Chicago Bulls when they entered the NBA in 1966. He later became the executive assistant to Dick Klein, then president and general manager of the Bulls.

As a collegiate basketball player, he originally enrolled at the University of Kansas, but transferred after his prospective teammate, Wilt Chamberlain, left the Jayhawks for a pro contract. Colangelo transferred to the University of Illinois, where he earned All-Big Ten honors, averaging 15 points per game. He captained the Illinois team as a senior. He also played two years of baseball at Illinois. He was later inducted into the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame.

Colangelo prepped at Bloom Township High in Chicago Heights, Illinois, averaging 15 points per game. Over two years, his team was 49-8 and made two appearances in the Illinois State Championship Tournament. A left-hander, he was also the top pitcher on the school baseball team that featured former Yankee hurler Jim Bouton. Upon graduation Colangelo had 66 scholarship offers for college basketball and seven offers for pro baseball contracts. He earned All-State recognition in basketball as a senior.

Colangelo was born on November 20, 1939. He grew up in the "Hungry Hill" neighborhood of Chicago Heights. He and wife, Joan, have four children: Kathy Holcombe, Kristen Brubaker, Bryan, and Mandie, all of Phoenix.

COTTON FITZSIMMONS
SENIOR EXEC. VICE PRESIDENT

Cotton Fitzsimmons celebrates his fourth season as the Suns' senior executive vice president. He also returns as color analyst for all games broadcast on KTAR-Radio and the 41 simulcasts slated for KUTP-TV 45. Fitzsimmons' quick wit and ability to deliver game analysis in a concise manner complements the Voice of the Suns, Al McCoy.

Fitzsimmons also assists Suns' President and CEO Jerry Colangelo in overall team operations. The former Suns head coach was busy in 1994 as the club continued to build a title contender and were again the leaders in the free agent market by signing Danny Manning and Wayman Tisdale. At the 1995 All-Star game in Phoenix, Fitzsimmons dusted off the playbook to coach the Schick Rookies, including Suns' guard Wesley Person.

Fitzsimmons left the sidelines in 1992 after coaching the Suns to four consecutive 50-win seasons and two trips to the conference finals in his four-year tenure. In that four-year span Phoenix's 217-111 (.662) record trailed only the Lakers, Portland, Chicago and Detroit.

In his 19-year NBA coaching career, he compiled an impressive 805-745 (.519) record. He is the seventh-winningest coach in NBA history behind Red Auerbach, Jack Ramsay, Dick Motta, Bill Fitch, Lenny Wilkens, and Don Nelson. Twice named NBA Coach of the Year, (1978-79 with Kansas City and 1988-89 with Phoenix), his .638 (314-178) winning percentage with the Suns is the second-highest of any Suns coach (two season minimum). He spent six years as head coach of the Suns including a two-year stint from 1970 through 1972.

In his final season as head coach in 1991-92, Phoenix finished with a 53-29 mark. Fitzsimmons was selected IBM Coach of the Month for December as he guided the Suns to an 11-1 mark. He recorded his 800th coaching victory on March 31, 1992 vs. Portland, becoming only the sixth coach in NBA history to reach the plateau. In 1990-91, the Suns won 23 road games and also won 13 games in March, which tied the club mark for the most wins in one month. His club also set a then-team record by winning eight consecutive road games in late February and March.

In 1989-90, the team advanced to the conference finals after defeating the LA Lakers for the first time in the playoffs. During the season, the Suns set a then-club record of 22 road wins. Their 11-1 record in February was their second-best winning month in franchise history. The season included a stretch of 19 wins in a row at home and 10 wins in a row in January, both were single-season records.

During his first year of his second stint with the Suns, 1988-89, the Suns won 27 more games than the previous year, which at the time was the third-biggest turnaround in NBA history. It was the first time in his NBA coaching career that he led a team to 50 or more wins. The Suns made the playoffs for the first time in four years and went to the conference finals before falling to the LA Lakers. He was named Coach of the Month for April and was ultimately honored as Coach of the Year by the NBA, The Sporting News and Basketball Weekly.

He was named head coach May 10, 1988, a year after he had been named the Suns' first director of player personnel. On February 25, 1988, he orchestrated the biggest deal in Suns' history by trading Larry Nance, Mike Sanders, and a first-round pick ('88) to Cleveland for Kevin Johnson, Mark West, Tyrone Corbin, and first and second-round draft picks. He tabbed Dan Majerle with that first-round pick in the '88 NBA Draft.

He began his pro coaching career with Phoenix in 1970 and posted a 97-67 record during his two seasons. Other stops include San Antonio (1984-86) where he posted a 76-88 mark over two seasons and led the Spurs to the playoffs each year. From 1978-84 he coached Kansas City to a 248-224 record. While there, he was named Coach of the Year in 1978-79 after leading the Kings to a first place finish in the Midwest Division. Prior to joining the Kings, he coached the Buffalo Braves for one season (1977-78) and Atlanta for four years (1972-76). During the 1976-77 season, he was the director of player personnel for the Golden State Warriors.

Fitzsimmons began his coaching career in 1958 at Moberly (MO) Junior College. In nine years at Moberly, he was 223-59 (.791) and his teams won 24 or more games in each of his last seven seasons. His best record, 31-2, came in 1966-67. He won JUCO titles in 1966 and '67 and he was named Coach of the Year in 1966 and '67. He then moved to Kansas State as an assistant coach and took over as head coach in 1968. In two years at KSU, he led the Wildcats to a 34-20 (.630) record. He was named Big Eight Coach of the Year in 1970 after leading the Wildcats to the Big Eight Championship and into the NCAA Tournament semifinals.

Born October 7, 1931, in Hannibal, MO, he was inducted into the Missouri Basketball Hall of Fame during the summer of 1988, the National Junior College Hall of Fame in the Spring of 1985, and the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1981. In 1995 he was named NAIA Alumnus of the Year. He and wife, JoAnn, reside in Phoenix. His son, Gary, is the director of player personnel for Cleveland. He enjoys golfing and fishing in his spare time. He has also worked on national television, and fans across the country have enjoyed his broadcasting insights on TNT and NBC playoff telecasts.

BRYAN COLANGELO
VICE PRESIDENT
ADMIN./G.M.

Bryan Colangelo was named vice president, administration and general manager of the Phoenix Suns, a move which closely resembles the career path of his father, Jerry Colangelo, who assumed the position of general manager at the age of 28. Colangelo, now 30, will oversee all day-to-day business and basketball operations of the NBA club and the general business operations of its affiliated organizations — S.R.O. Communications and Center Court Digital Post.

Colangelo, a 1987 graduate of Cornell University in Ithaca, NY with a bachelor's of science in business management and applied economics, has enjoyed a brief, yet storied career since joining the Suns organization in 1990. Specific to basketball, Colangelo had previously held the positions of scout, assistant director of player personnel, and vice president/assistant general manager where he was directly involved in all aspects of player personnel, including evaluation, selection and transactions. Colangelo has also served as tournament director for three years of the Nike Desert Classic, an annual college All-Star basketball tournament held at the America West Arena featuring the nation's top senior NBA prospects.

In addition to his responsibilities with the Suns, Colangelo has served, and will continue to serve as president of Phoenix Arena Sports (PAS), the owning entity of the Arizona Rattlers (Arena Football League) and the Arizona Sandsharks (Continental Indoor Soccer League). He has overseen the business administration, team operations, and marketing sales of each of the franchises and various other exhibition events including tennis, hockey, boxing and volleyball, while also serving on the executive committee of both the AFL and CISL. Highlights of his involvement with PAS include the 1994 World Championship campaign (the state of Arizona's first) of the Rattlers, and his selection as AFL 1993 Executive of the Year.

A 1983 graduate of Central High in Phoenix, Colangelo remains active in the community while serving on the board of directors of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce, Arizona Sports Council (Grand Canyon State Games), Phoenix Suns Charities, and Home Base Youth Services. Colangelo was recently named on a list of the top 25 Valley business leaders in a poll conducted by The Business Journal.

TOM AMBROSE
PUBLIC RELATIONS

Tom Ambrose, a respected member of the NBA public relations corps, celebrates his 23rd season with the Suns, ninth as vice president of public relations. Overseeing all P.R. efforts, he also serves as president of Phoenix Suns Charities and executive editor of Fastbreak Magazine.

Ambrose, a 17-year member of the P.R. Society of America, was founder and first president of the NBA's P.R. Directors Association, authoring its code of ethics. In 1992, he co-authored A Silver Anniversary Celebration of the Phoenix Suns. Voted the Western Conference's top P.R. director in 1983, he won an Emmy for his work on the Suns' 1981-82 highlight film, "The Dream Season."

Involved with the Arizona Governor's Council on Health, Physical Fitness and Sports, Phoenix Zoo, Combined Metropolitan Phoenix Arts and Sciences Board, Arizona Senior Olympics, America West Airlines Foundation, and Arizona Coalition for Tomorrow, Ambrose served on the P.R. staff of The Arizona Republic and The Phoenix Gazette before joining the Suns in October of 1973 as P.R. director. Born April 6, 1948 in New Rochelle, NY, he attended Iona Prep and earned an English degree from Notre Dame in 1970. He and wife, Alice, have one daughter, Casey (19). He scuba dives, golfs and lives on the edge as a licensed pilot.

RAY ARTIGUE
VICE PRESIDENT COMMUNICATIONS

After serving the past three seasons as director, Ray Artigue is the Suns' new vice president of communications. The Arizona native will continue to serve as general manager of S.R.O. Communications, the Suns' in-house advertising and P.R. agency that provides full marketing services for the Suns, Arizona Rattlers, Arizona Sandsharks, and America West Arena.

In 1987, he founded Evans/Artigue Public Relations, and is a member of the Public Relations Society of America's Counselors Academy. He also won the 1991 PERCY award. A 1976 graduate from Arizona State University's Walter Cronkite School of Journalism, he won the school's Hall of Fame award in 1994. Currently, he is co-authoring a college textbook, Public Relations Campaigns and Tactics: Developing Public and Private Relationships. He was named AD Person of the Year for 1994 by the Phoenix Ad Club.

AL McCOY
VICE PRESIDENT BROADCASTING

From "Zing go the Strings" to "Heartbreak Hotel", the Voice of the Suns has cultivated a style that not only relays the facts, but makes each play seem as exciting as any in team history. In his 24th season with the club, Al McCoy will call play-by-play action on KTAR-Radio and KUTP-TV.

McCoy began his broadcasting career in 1951 at KJFJ-Radio in Webster City, IA. From there, he went on to broadcast Big Ten, Big Eight and Missouri Valley Conference sports. In 1958, he arrived in Arizona as play-by-play announcer for the Triple-A Phoenix Giants. He also covered Arizona State University football and basketball, as well as Phoenix Roadrunner hockey.

A native of Williams, IA, he received his degree in drama-speech from Drake (Des Moines, IA) and did graduate work at Iowa. In 1994, he received the Alumni Achievement award from Drake.

McCoy and wife, Georgia, a local artist, have three sons: Mike, an on-air personality and radio program director in Oklahoma City, and twins Jay, a psychologist/counselor, and Jerry, a public relations professional. A culinary critic, McCoy is the Suns' expert on gourmet restaurants around the league, and is a long-time jazz buff, as well as an accomplished jazz pianist.

JIM PITMAN
VICE PRESIDENT FINANCE

Jim Pitman begins his first season as vice president of finance after serving as corporate controller for two seasons. Included in his responsibilites as the Suns' NBA finance chief, Pitman oversees all accounting, finance, and insurance aspects of the organization.

A native of Rio, IL, Pitman is a 1987 graduate of the University of Illinois where he earned a degree in accountancy. Before joining the Suns in 1992 as assistant controller, he spent nearly five years in the audit division of the Phoenix office of Arthur Andersen and Co. with client responsibility in the pro sports, hospitality and wholesale distribution industries.

Born October, 7, 1965, he and wife, Ronda, have two children: Amy (2) and Kyle (six months). Pitman also serves as chairman of the Transportation Task Force of the Downtown Phoenix Partnership, and as a board member of the Orpheum Theater Foundation and Suns Charities. An avid Cubs fan, Pitman lists basketball and golf as his favorite out-of-office activities.

HARVEY SHANK
VICE PRESIDENT MARKETING

Harvey Shank celebrates his 24th season with the Suns, ninth as vice president of marketing. During that span, Shank has skillfully guided one of the NBA's most successful marketing divisions. He's responsible for selling radio and television advertising packages, along with signage packages in America West Arena. He was elevated to vice president in 1987 after spending eight seasons as director of marketing.

A native of Toronto, Canada, Shank is a 1968 graduate of Stanford where he earned a degree in political science. Following four seasons pitching with the California Angels organization, he joined the Suns as a salesman in September of 1971.

Born July 29, 1946, Shank attended Woodside (CA) High. His son, Jon (19), is a pitcher at Stanford. He and wife, Maryse, were married in July of 1988. Active in the community, he is a board member for Crisis Nursery, and the Valley of the Suns Convention and Visitors Bureau.

DICK VAN ARSDALE
PLAYER PERSONNEL

Dick Van Arsdale is loyalty defined. A fixture with the Suns since they first joined the NBA in 1968, he's been a player, coach, TV commentator, and a pivotal member of the front office. This season marks his fourth as vice president of player personnel.

Following 15 seasons as the Suns' TV color analyst, Van became vice president of basketball operations in 1987. He was named interim head coach in the final 26 games of the 1986-87 season and guided Phoenix to a 14-12 mark, including 12 wins in the final 15 games.

The Suns made Van their first selection in the 1968 NBA Expansion Draft from New York. As a Knick, he played with five future Hall of Famers and was named All-Rookie in 1965. With Phoenix, he scored the franchise's first point and finished with 12,060 points in nine seasons as a Sun. He's one of only five Suns to have his jersey (5) retired.

Born February 22, 1943, Van and his twin, Tom, shared "Mr. Basketball" honors as high school seniors. Both went on to become All-Americans at Indiana University. And, both authored a book, Two of a Kind, a chronicle of their basketball days. He has two children: Jill (25) and Jason (22).

PAUL WESTPHAL
HEAD COACH

"When you have a group that wants to win, you've got to let 'em."

— Sparky Anderson, Manager, Detroit Tigers

It's these words from one of baseball's greats, hanging in the coaches office in the Suns' lockerroom, that explains Paul Westphal's coaching philosophy. This approach has worked for "Westy" since he became the Suns head coach in 1992. During his three seasons, he has compiled a record of 177-69 (.720). The Suns surpassed the 55-win mark each season, while clinching two Pacific Division banners (1993, 1995), and one conference title (1992-93).

During the 1994-95 season, despite injuries which forced him to use 24 different starting line-ups, Westy grabbed his 150th win in his 208th game on January 26 in Indiana. He became the second-fastest coach to reach 150 wins in NBA history (Chicago's Phil Jackson, 203 games; Miami's Pat Riley, 212). The season was also marked by Westy's second All-Star win. His Western squad beat the East, 139-112, at America West Arena.

The 1994-95 team finished with the second-best record in club history at 59-23 (.720), third-best in the NBA, and clinched the division title for the second time under Westy's leadership (1992-93). The Suns finished strong, winning eight of their final nine, including their last six at home. They matched a club record for most road wins at 27-14. They fell to NBA titlist Houston in seven semifinal games for the second-straight season.

His 1993-94 club finished at 56-26 (.683). Injuries to key players forced him to use 17 different starting line-ups. The club was 17-5 through the first two months before injuries. He was able to maintain the club's play at the .500-level during that stretch and by the end of February, with a healthy club, he took them to a 20-9 mark over the final two months, including a season-ending seven-game winning streak.

The 1992-93 season, his first as head coach, saw the Suns finish with the NBA's best record and the best in club history at 62-20 (.756) — the first time a Suns team had reached the 60-win plateau. The 62 wins is the most ever by a rookie head coach (50 game min.) as he surpassed Bill Russell (60-21, 1966-67) with a win in Portland on April 22. The .756 win percentage is second among first-year coaches behind Al Cervi's .797 (51-13, 1949-50). The Suns had the second-best home and the best road marks (35-6; 27-14). He was named Coach of the Month for December, leading the team to a 14-0 record, only the seventh time in NBA history a team went undefeated during a month with at least 10 games. It was the third-best one-month record in history (LA Lakers, 16-0 12/71; Boston Celtics, 15-0 12/59; and Lakers, 14-0 11/71). He coached the West squad to a 135-132 overtime win in the All-Star game in Salt Lake City, the fifth rookie coach in NBA history to coach, joining Ed Macauley (1951), Billy Cunningham (1978), Riley (1982) and Chris Ford (1991) and the fourth to win. His success continued in the playoffs. He guided the team to its second conference title and second trip to the NBA Finals. The Suns came up two games short, falling to Chicago in a thrilling Finals series.

Westphal took over as the club's 10th head coach on July 1, 1992. He had been an assistant to Cotton Fitzsimmons during the previous four seasons. Fitzsimmons had groomed Westy to take over when he stepped down. As a player, Westphal was known for his willingness to try new things on the court and be creative with the basketball. These two elements are now strengths in his coaching style. Before joining the Suns as an assistant, he spent three years as a collegiate head coach: two at Grand Canyon and one at Southwestern. His career began at Southwestern, a small Bible school in Phoenix. He took over a team that went 3-20 the previous season, and led them to a 21-9 mark and a berth in the 1986 National Little College Athletic Association Tournament. Success followed him to Grand Canyon where he compiled a 63-18 record over the next two seasons, including the NAIA National title in 1988.

Westphal's 12-year NBA playing career began in Boston as the 10th overall pick in the 1972 NBA Draft. He played three seasons for Boston, averaging 7.3 points, and winning an NBA title with them in 1974. Before the 1975-76 season, he was traded to Phoenix where he spent the next five seasons. With the Suns, he was a four-time All-Star and led the team in scoring each season. His best scoring year with Phoenix was in 1977-78 (25.2 points per game). Traded to Seattle for Dennis Johnson in 1980, he spent one All-Star season with the Sonics before signing with New York as a free agent. In two seasons there, he won Comeback Player of the Year in 1983 after successful foot surgery. He played his final NBA season with the Suns (1983-84), and is fifth on the Suns' all-time scoring list (9,564). A four-time All-NBA-er, Westphal had his jersey, 44, retired on April 15, 1989.

A three-time All Pac-8 performer and two-time All-America at USC, he averaged 16.3 points for his three years of college play. He led USC to a 24-2 mark as a junior, but a knee injury as a senior in 1972 forced him to play in just 14 games, where he averaged 20.3 points. He played on the Olympic developmental team in 1970 and with the U.S. Pan American squad in 1971. At Aviation High in Redondo Beach, CA, he averaged 32 points, was named CIF Player of the Year as a senior, and still holds the school's record for most points in a season.

Born November 30, 1950 in Torrance, CA, he and wife, Cindy, have two children: Victoria (19) and Michael Paul (16).

PAUL SILAS
ASSISTANT COACH

Paul Silas, one of the NBA's most respected teachers of the game, celebrates his 30th season as an NBA player or coach. He is also considered one of the NBA's best at developing and improving the games of the league's top pivotmen. Silas joined the Suns on June 1, 1995 as the top assistant to Paul Westphal, following three seasons with New Jersey. He played for the Suns from 1969-1972 and later teamed with Westphal in Boston on the 1974 NBA title team.

He's played with the best and has coached with the best. Last season, Silas was the top assistant to the Nets' Butch Beard following two seasons under Hall of Famer Chuck Daly. He was an assistant to the Nets' Dave Wohl in 1988-89 before spending three seasons (1989-92) in New York, including 1991-92 as future Hall of Famer Pat Riley's assistant.

During his 16-year career, the 6-7 forward known as "Papa Paul" was a four-time All-Star and one of the league's most ferocious rebounders. His 14 trips to the playoffs included titles with Boston in 1974 and 1976 — the latter against Westphal and the Suns — and in Seattle in 1976. A second round pick of the St. Louis Hawks in the 1964 NBA Draft, Silas played five seasons there before being traded to Phoenix on May 8, 1969 for forward Gary Gregor. In 239 games as a Sun, averaged 14.1 points, 12.1 rebounds, was voted to the 1972 All-Star team, and was a two-time All-Defensive performer (1971, '72). In his first season, the Suns made their first playoff appearance. And, he joins center Neal Walk as the only two Suns to have grabbed 1,000-plus rebounds in a season (1,015 in 1970-71).

A 1963 graduate of Creighton University, Silas led the NCAA in rebounding as a senior and became one of only seven players in NCAA history to average 20 points/20 rebounds-per-game.

Born July 12, 1943, he and wife, Carolyn, have two children: Paula (27) and Stephen (21). Silas hosts an annual corporate basketball tournament featuring former NBA greats to raise funds for the Special Olympics.

DONN NELSON
ASSISTANT COACH

When Donn Nelson arrived in Phoenix on July 26, 1995, the Suns not only acquired an experienced assistant, but one with a knack for developing young talent. Last season, he was the top assistant with a young Golden State club. Overall, he served eight seasons in the Bay Area, three as a scout and five as an assistant under his father, Don Nelson, now head coach of the New York Knicks. Last season, he was interim head coach when his father missed ten games with an illness. The team went 4-6, but lost to Orlando in overtime and to Houston on a last-gasp shot.

Nellie is also considered an authority on international basketball. This past summer, he was an assistant coach on the Lithuanian National Team, guiding them to a silver medal at the European Championships and a berth in the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta. He was also an assistant with the bronze medal-winning Lithuanian team at the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona.. He gained further experience as a scout for Dream Team II at the 1994 World Championships in Toronto — a squad that included Kevin Johnson and Dan Majerle.

While with the Warriors, Nellie was responsible for signing the first player from the former Soviet Union to an NBA contract (Sarunas Marciulionis) and is the only American coach to participate in a Soviet National training camp

Born September 10, 1962, he is a 1986 graduate of Wheaton (IL) College with degrees in physical education. Nellie was an all-conference guard and three-year captain for the Crusaders. After college, he played with Athletes in Action, a team of Christian basketball players. He and wife, Lotta, reside in Phoenix and have two children: Christie (3) and D.J. (1).

DICK PERCUDANI
DIRECTOR SCOUTING

After 11 seasons as a scout for the Suns, Dick Percudani begins his second season as the club's director of scouting. "Perc" began his Suns career in 1983 as the club's East Coast college scout following a successful coaching career on the high school, college, and professional levels.

After his 1957 graduation from Georgetown, he became an assistant at his high school alma mater, Power Memorial Academy in New York City. With a kid named Lew Alcindor at center, Power became the nation's top-ranked team in 1965-66.

In 1966, Perc became the first American to coach in the Italian Pro Leagues as head coach for Milan, and was named Rookie Coach of the Year. In 1970, he returned to America and was an assistant at Fairfield (CT) University. As a varsity assistant, the squad made their first-ever appearance in the NIT. He was then an assistant at Sacred Heart University and helped guide the team to the NCAA Division II Final Four in 1976-77.

Prior to joining the Suns, he was director of scouting for the Italian Pro Leagues after a stint as head coach of the Varese team. Considered an expert on European players, he was instrumental in acquiring forward Stefano Rusconi and former Suns guard Frank Johnson.

He and wife, Amelia, live in Fairfield, CT, and have five children: Louisa, Carol, Richard, Stephen, and Paul.

TODD QUINTER
NBA SCOUT

Todd Quinter celebrates his tenth season with the Suns, fourth as NBA scout. Since joining the club in 1986 as video coordinator, his duties have expanded dramatically.

"TQ" will once again help prepare the coaching staff for upcoming opponents as the advance scout. He will focus on game preparation and coordination of college scouting, and continues to be involved in the coordination of the Suns' rookie, free agent, and training camps. He will serve as coordinator of the 1996 Nike Desert Classic.

Born December 18, 1958 in Nazareth, PA, he guided Nazareth Area High to the league title before heading to Lebanon Valley College (Annville, PA) where he broke three school records in four seasons at guard, and was twice named team MVP. He and wife, Kim, had their first child, Jacob David, on March 13, 1994. He also has a son, Adam (11). He owns two Old English Sheepdogs, Sergeant and Major, and is a cousin to singer/actor Glenn Frey of the Eagles.

AL BIANCHI
COLLEGE SCOUT

Al Bianchi, whose wealth of experience spans 30 years, is in his 15th season with the Suns, second as college scout. An assistant to John MacLeod in 1976, he spent 12 seasons in that role before returning home to serve as general manager of the New York Knicks. Prior to re-joining the Suns full-time, he spent two seasons as a regional scout for both the Suns and Miami Heat.

Bianchi, who owns a sharp eye for talent, began his pro coaching career in 1966 as an assistant with the expansion Chicago Bulls. He served as head coach of the NBA's Seattle SuperSonics (1967-69) and the ABA's Washington Capitals-Virginia Squires franchise (1969-76). With the Squires, Bianchi signed Julius Erving and George Gervin to their first pro contracts.

Bianchi led Bowling Green University to an NIT berth in 1954. Following a two-year stint with the Army Medical Corps, he began the first of his 10 professional seasons (1956-66) with the ABA's Syracuse Nationals-NBA's Philadelphia 76ers.

Born March 26, 1932, Bianchi, a native of Long Island City, NY, holds a degree in education-history. He resides in Phoenix and has six children.

GARRICK BARR
VIDEO COACH

This season marks Garrick Barr's third as video coach. His responsibilities include assisting the coaching staff with scouting and taping upwards of 800 college and NBA games each season which provide source material for the edits he provides to scouts, coaches and players.

During his four seasons as an assistant coach at Grand Canyon University, Barr was an assistant to Paul Westphal in 1986 and during the 1987 NAIA Championship season. He also assisted Westphal at Southwestern College, and later coached at Glendale Community College.

After teaming with Westphal at Aviation High School in Redondo Beach, CA, Barr went on to play four seasons at the University of California at Irvine and graduated in 1973 with a degree in philosophy. He's a gifted musician who plays saxophone in a local contemporary jazz group, Desert Wind. Barr has a daughter, Autumn Melody (6).

TRAINING ROOM STAFF

JOE PROSKI
HEAD TRAINER

Joe Proski's "Magic Fingers" have been soothing Suns players for 27 seasons. Now in his 28th season, he's the only trainer the team has ever had. Besides his duties as head trainer, "Prosk" serves as on-the-road controller, handling the club's hectic travel schedule. A legendary figure in the NBA, Prosk also supervises the training staff for all sporting events in the America West Arena.

From 1978-88, Proski was the western representative for the National Basketball Trainers Association. After the 1987-88 season, he became only the 10th NBA trainer to be honored as Trainer of the Year by the NBTA. He has been a trainer at four All-Star games.

A native of Green Bay, WI, he attended Florida Trainers School and is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association. In June of 1986, he received NATA's 25-year award. Prior to joining the Suns, he worked with the LA Dodgers, Chicago Cubs, Detroit Tigers, and Chicago Bulls.

Proski works on his restored 1953 Bentley and 1950 Mercury while at home. The custom Merc is a candy-grape show-winner. In fact, the Merc won four first-place prizes at the 25th anniversary "World of Wheels," and was chosen to appear in the 1995 Portland Roadster show. He and wife, Jan, have two children: Jolene and Jori.

ROBIN POUND
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Robin Pound is in his fifth year as the Suns' strength and conditioning coach. He has the task of creating and administering strength and conditioning programs. Much of his work is done in the state-of-the-art workout facility located at America West Arena.

Before joining the Suns, he served as head strength and conditioning coach at The University of California at Berkeley from 1987-91. He first joined the Golden Bears in 1985 as assistant strength coach after serving in the same position at the University of Oregon from 1978-84.

A national and local speaker, Pound has had numerous articles published and has been a member of various advisory boards in his field. He's a founding member and serves on the board of directors of the National Basketball Conditioning Coaches Association. He authored portions of and served as associate coordinator/editor for Condition the NBA Way. Pound received his degree in physical education from Oregon and earned a master's degree in exercise physiology and anatomy from the same school in 1984.

PUBLIC AND MEDIA RELATIONS

JULIE FIE
MEDIA RELATIONS DIRECTOR

Julie Fie, a 14-year veteran of the NBA's public relations corps, is in her fourth season as media relations director after joining the team in September of 1992. She is the club's liaison between the media and the team's management and players, and is responsible for coordinating media interviews and requests on a local, national, and international basis. That includes supervising game-night press accomodations, news conferences, and production of media information ranging from media guides and game programs to game notes and statistics.

A former member of the NBA's P.R. Advisory Board, Fie joined the Kansas City Kings in 1981 as assistant P.R. director. She was elevated to director the following season and moved with the club to Sacramento in 1985, and remained there until joining the Suns in 1992.

A communications graduate from Iowa State University, Fie spent two years as an undergraduate with the ISU sports information department. She is a native of Jefferson, IA.

ROB HARRIS
COMM. RELATIONS DIRECTOR

Rob Harris is in his fourth season as community relations director. He is responsible for managing the team's community relations programs, which include Suns Nite Hoops, Stay in School, Samaritan Wheelchair Suns, and Accept the Challenge.

Prior to joining the Suns, he worked three years for the Phoenix-based public affairs firm, Nelson, Robb, DuVal and DeMenna. Active in charity work, Harris serves on the board of directors of HomeBase Youth Services, Life Teen Program, ASU Disabled Student Resources, and the Phoenix Youth Commission Subcommittee.

Born on January 30, 1966 in Chicago, Harris has lived in Phoenix since 1973. He attended Brophy College Preparatory and graduated with a degree in political science from Arizona State University in 1989. He enjoys playing softball, basketball, and golf.

JIM BREWER
PUBLICATIONS DIRECTOR

Jim Brewer embarks on his sixth season as the Suns' director of publications. He also serves as managing editor of Fastbreak Magazine and has published several articles in local and national magazines in the United States, Germany, and Australia. In 1992, he co-authored A Silver Anniversary Celebration of the Phoenix Suns with the Suns' Vice President of Public Relations, Tom Ambrose.

He is a member of the board of directors of Central Arizona Shelter Services.

A fourth-generation Arizona native, Brewer was born on October 1, 1967 in Winslow. He attended Shadow Mountain High and graduated from Arizona State University with a degree in journalism. He and wife, Kathy, have one daughter, Katie (2), and newborn Jennifer Marie , born on October 3.

ASPN/COX CABLE

Gary Bender
Play-by-Play

One of the most respected and versatile announcers during the past 21 years at the national level, Gary Bender begins his third season as Suns' play-by-play announcer on ASPN/Cox Cable.

This past fall he was named Voice of the St. Louis Rams on KSD-Radio. Previously, he spent three seasons with Turner Sports on weekly NBA coverage and Sunday Night NFL telecasts. He has done play-by-play on ABC-TV and CBS Sports for the NBA, Major League Baseball and college football and basketball. Other highlights include the Masters Golf Tournament, Pan American Games, World University Games and speed skating at the 1988 Winter Olympics. He worked at KMOX-Radio in St. Louis (1979-80) and was sports director at KMOX-TV (1977-78).

A native of Ulysses, KS, he graduated from Wichita State ('62) and earned a master's in TV and film from Kansas. Covering Jayhawk sports for KU's radio network from 1967-69, he spent the next six seasons as Voice of the Green Bay Packers. During that time, he also covered University of Wisconsin sports. In 1973 and '74, he was Voice of the Milwaukee Brewers on WTMJ-TV.

Bender and wife, Linda, have two sons: Trey (27), who works for KTAR-Radio and is the Voice of the Arizona Rattlers , and Brett (24), media relations director for Phoenix Arena Sports. In 1994, Bender released his book, Call of the Game: What really happens in the broadcast booth.

Keith Erickson
Color Analyst

Keith Erickson is back for his third season as color analyst on ASPN/Cox Cable. A familiar face to Suns fans, he played four seasons in the purple and orange from 1973-77.

Following his 12-year NBA playing career, Erickson spent two seasons as an NBA color analyst alongside Gary Bender on CBS-TV (1978-80). He then served eight seasons as color analyst on LA Lakers simulcasts with Chick Hearn, and two seasons on LA Clippers cable broadcasts. In 1992-93, he worked with Al McCoy on several Suns' broadcasts.

His playing career includes an NBA title with the LA Lakers in 1972. As a Sun, he played 239 games, averaging 11.0 points. A 1965 UCLA graduate, he played on John Wooden's first two NCAA title teams and won the gold with the 1964 U.S. Olympic Volleyball team in Tokyo.

Erickson and wife, Adienne, reside in Santa Monica, CA, and have five children: Sean (23), Angelica (20), Forest (18), Gloria (15) and David (14).

FORWARD

MILESTONES
(GOING INTO 1995-96)

- Needs 909 points and 510 rebounds to become only the ninth player in NBA history to reach 20,000-point — 10,000-rebounds, third among active players (M. Malone, R. Parish, H. Olajuwon).
- Ranks 27th on NBA's all-time scoring list (19,091), eighth among actives.
- Ranks fifth among actives, 25th all-time, with 9,490 rebounds.
- Ranks fifth among actives, 10th all-time, with .555 field goal accuracy.
- With 24 points vs. San Antonio on 4/12/95, became 12th player all-time, fourth active, to reach 19,000-9,000 plateaus.

1994-95 SEASON: One of the NBA's all-time great power forwards... Phoenix was 177-69 (.720) and twice Pacific Division champs in the three-year span since his arrival in 1992, tops in the NBA, with Seattle next at 175-71... Underwent successful arthroscopic surgery (performed by Dr. Richard Emerson) on left knee on 5/26... Appeared in 68 contests, averaging 23.0 ppg (seventh in NBA), 11.1 rpg (would have ranked fourth, but failed to reach league minimums of 70 games/800 rebounds) in 35.0 mpg... Missed 13 games due to injury, 11 to start the season with a pulled abdominal muscle and two with a sprained left knee... Missed one game due to suspension after receiving sixth flagrant foul at Denver on 4/14... Ranks second in Suns annals with 23.5 ppg (Charlie Scott, 24.8)... Tops among active players with 17 career triple-doubles (next Clyde Drexler, 16), sixth all-time... Tallied 15 points, nine rebounds in ninth-straight All-Star appearance, as the West won 139-112 at America West Arena... In 29 games following the break, averaged 26.4 ppg, 11.6 rpg... Prior to the break, averaged 20.3 ppg, 10.5 rpg... Scoring leader in 24 of last 29 games and rebounding leader in 18 of last 24... Entered season as NBA's second-best field goal shooter among actives, but struggled to career-low .486... Surpassed previous highs in makes and attempts from three-point range — 71-213 (.333)... 39 double-doubles... Scored 20+ points 34 times, 30+ 11 times... Season-high 45 points, including 27 in the first half, on 17-27 fgs (.630), 4-8 treys, 7-10 fts at San Antonio on 4/2... Helped clinch Pacific Division title with 22 points, 17 rebounds vs. Dallas on 4/21... Secured 20+ rebounds twice, including career-high 26 vs. Houston on 3/24, one shy of franchise record 27 (Paul Silas vs. Cincinnati at Omaha on 1/18/71)... Marked 10th time with 20+ boards as a Sun and was the most rebounds ever at a Suns home game (previous was 25 by Dennis Rodman, Maurice Lucas, Dave DeBusschere)... - Nine boards shy of 7,000.
- Needs 504 points for his 10,000th.
- Surpassed 9,000-point mark with 13 points at Minnesota on 1/24/95.

"THE STREAK"

- Ranks first among active players with streak of 731-straight regular season games played, third all-time, trailing Johnny Kerr (844) and Randy Smith (906)... Streak began 11/19/86 at San Antonio... 1994-95 marked eighth-straight season without missing a game... Missed three games during 10-year career, all coaches decisions... Has a perfect attendance record that stretches back to his playing days at Benson Polytechnic High in Portland... Could become NBA's own Cal Ripken (MLB's all-time ironman) in the eighth game of the 1997-98 season.

1994-95 SEASON: One of the NBA's most durable frontcourt performers... Culminated second season with the Suns, averaging 11.2 ppg, 8.3 rpg, .504 from the field in 32.8 mpg over 82 games — eighth-straight season having played entire regular season schedule... Suns' second-leading rebounder (669, 8.2 rpg)... Rebound total marked fourth consecutive season with 600+... Started 51 games at forward, including final 14, and one game at center (at San Antonio on 2/22, 9 points, 12 rebounds)... Suns were 39-13 (.750) in those games... Averaged 11.8 ppg, 9.2 rpg as a starter in final 14 games... Made career-best 43-127 (.339) from three-point range (previous highs: 16-46, .348 in 1992-93)... Clutch trey with 1:02 left in overtime to defeat Seattle on 3/3... Had 28 double-figure rebounding games, leading the club 24 times... 22 double-doubles... Scored double figures 49 times, leading the club twice (24 points vs. Boston on 2/21; 14 points at Indiana on 1/26)... Posted three 20-10 games, including 21 points, 14 rebounds vs. LA Lakers on 4/15 — the win helped Phoenix stay on course for its Pacific Division title... Rebound average jumped from 7.4 rpg to 9.3 rpg in 32 games following All-Star break, including season-high 15 at Utah on 2/8... Matched that high on four other occasions (vs. Charlotte on 2/26; vs. Golden State on 3/12; vs. Utah on 3/28; vs. Seattle on 4/23)... Season-high 24 points (8-15 fgs, 19 points in second half) vs. Boston on 2/21. PLAYOFFS: Culminated 10th-straight trip, averaging career-highs 12.8 ppg, 12.0 rpg and .873 from the stripe over ten games... Tied career playoff high with 25 points vs. Houston... Fifth among active players with 123 career playoff games... Eighth among actives with 340 offensive boards.

PRO CAREER NOTES: Veteran of ten NBA seasons: LA Lakers, Phoenix... Averaging 11.6 ppg, 8.5 rpg, .506 fg%, .745 ft% in 30.6 mpg over 817 career games... Starting forward on 1990 All-Star team... All-Defensive team (1989)... Member of LA Lakers' back-to-back World Championship teams (1987 vs. Boston; 1988 vs. Detroit)... Four NBA Finals appearances (1987, '88, '89,'91). 1993-94: Averaged career-high 14.7 ppg and second-best 9.2 rpg (career-best 9.3 in 1991-92).. As a starter in first 56 games, averaged 16.0 ppg, 9.4 rpg... Suns were 37-19 (.661)... Averaged 11.8 ppg, 8.6 rpg in final 26 games off the bench... Double-figure rebounds 37 times and led club 23 times... Scored double figures in 66 games, 20+ 14 times, 30+ twice (31 points vs. Portland on 11/19; career-high 35 points vs. Sacramento on 1/15)... Started opener at LA Lakers on 11/5, scoring 25 points... Established career-highs of 35 points, 19 rebounds vs. Sacramento on 1/15... Averaged 12.5 ppg, 8.4 rpg in ten playoff games... Surpassed previous career playoff highs in makes and attempts from three-point range, connecting on 7-17 (.412) vs. Houston. 1992-93: Averaged 12.8 ppg, 8.7 rpg, .537 from the field (11th in NBA) in final season with LA... Team's rebound leader for sixth time in eight seasons... Eighth player in Laker history to notch 5,000 rebounds (vs. Phoenix on 3/24). 1991-92: Averaged career-best 9.3 rpg, including 306 offensive... Posted career-best 12.8 ppg in first-round vs. Portland. 1990-91: Averaged 9.1 ppg, 6.3 rpg... Lakers defeated by Chicago in NBA Finals. 1989-90: Followed Showtime stars Magic Johnson, James Worthy and Byron Scott with 12.9 ppg, and grabbed team-high 8.7 rpg. 1988-89: All-Defensive second team... Posted 13.3 ppg, 9.1 rpg... Appeared in third-straight NBA Finals. 1987-88: First of eight-straight seasons having played in all 82 games, averaging 11.4 ppg, 8.7 rpg for "repeat" World Champions. 1986-87: Streak of 731 consecutive games played began at San Antonio on 11/19... Came off bench in first ten games, but started final 72, leading eventual NBA titlists in rebounding (7.8). 1985-86: LA Lakers' first-round choice in the 1985 NBA Draft (23rd overall)...Other first round picks included Wayman Tisdale (2nd overall) and Joe Kleine (6th)... - Reached 10,000-point mark with 15 vs. Minnesota on 3/31/95, and hit 5,000-assist mark with 11 at Dallas on 12/27/94.

- With 504 free throws made and 714 attempts, KJ will surpass Dick Van Arsdale as Phoenix's all-time leader at the stripe.

DISHHH...

- Perennially among NBA assist leaders... Ranks 14th all-time, fifth among actives, with 5,272 career assists (trails Terry Porter in fourth, 5319, and Muggsy Bogues, third, 5469)... Surpassed Alvan Adams to become Suns all-time assist leader with nine at Boston 4/2/93... 20+ assists seven times in his career.

1994-95 SEASON: One of the NBA's quickest point guards... Endured a season mixed with injuries which only allowed him to play in a career-low 47 games, but returned to usual All-Star level down the stretch, and throughout the playoffs... Averaged 15.5 ppg, 7.7 apg in 28.8 mpg over 47 games, including 35 starts... Point and assist totals were career-lows (averaged 9.2 ppg, 5.5 apg as a rookie)... Missed 35 games due to injuries — strained rib cage, left knee contusion, strained right quadricep, strained left groin... A career .493 field goal shooter, struggled to a .470 mark (.461 as a rookie)... Sixth in the NBA with 3.43 assist/turnover ratio... Scored double figures in 27 of final 30 games... 11 double-doubles, including 19-point, season-high 16-assist effort vs. LA Lakers on 4/15, and 25-point, 14-assist contest vs. Seattle on 3/3... Missed four games due to injury following All-Star break... During 10-game stretch from 2/19 to 3/7, averaged 20.2 ppg, 10.1 apg, .486 fg%, including season-high 31 points at LA Clippers on 2/28... Hit game-winning 17-footer with :03.7 left at Dal. on 12/27... Surpassed P. Westphal to become Suns' fourth all-time scoring leader... "I have always looked up to KJ, and I was always chasing his records at Cal... playing against the All-Star is a learning experience." — Jason Kidd, Dallas guard. PLAYOFFS: Averaged 24.8 ppg, 9.3 apg, 4.1 rpg... Set NBA record with 21 consecutive free throws made in Game Seven vs. Houston (22 attempts)... Eighth on the 1995 Playoff leader board in scoring (24.8), third in assists (9.3), third in fg% (86-150, .573), and posted two of the top five scoring nights (46 points vs. Houston on 5/20; 43 points at Houston on 5/14)... Trails NBA leader J. Stockton with 820 career playoff assists... Owns virtually every Suns career playoff record: games played (83, tied with D. Majerle), points (1,789), steals (112), assists (820), fgm (617), fga (1,280), ftm (538), fta (645), and ranks second in ppg (24.5).

PRO CAREER NOTES: Veteran of eight NBA seasons: Cleveland, Phoenix... Averaging 18.4 ppg, 9.5 apg, 3.2 rpg, 1.2 spg, .493 fg%, .835 ft% in 553 career games... Career assist average (min. 400 games) ranks third all-time, tying Oscar Robertson... Three-time All-Star (reserve in 1990, '94; starter in '91)...Four-time All-NBA second team (1988-91, '94)... All-NBA third team (1992)... Most Improved Player award (1989)... J. Walter Kennedy PBWAA Citizenship award (1991)... Finished seventh in voting for 1991 Most Valuable Player award... Had three seasons averaging 20 points and 10 assists, becoming one of only five NBA players to have accomplished that feat (Nate Archibald, Magic Johnson, Oscar Robertson, Isiah Thomas)... Player of the Week (3/18/90, 12/16/90)... Rookie of the Month (4/88)... Teamed with D. Majerle on Dream Team II, the 1994 gold medal-winning USA Basketball team at the World Championships in Toronto. 1993-94: Averaged 20.0 ppg, 9.5 apg (fifth in NBA), 2.5 rpg, 1.87 spg... Missed 15 games due to injury and was also diagnosed with chicken pox... In 39 games after return, averaged 18.8 ppg, 10.0 apg... Double figure assists 28 times, including 17 of final 20 games... 26 double-doubles... Notched 10th career triple-double with 17 points, 13 assists and 10 steals vs. Washington on 12/9... His ten steals set a Suns all-time record and is one shy of the NBA-record of 11 set by Larry Kenon in 1976, and most in the league since Alvin Robertson's 10 in 1990... Amazed fans with 42-point (29 in first half; 14-25 fgs, 14-16 fts), 17-assist effort vs. Denver on 4/3... Career and franchise-best 25 assists vs. San Antonio on 4/6... Fined $7,500 for flagrant foul of Chicago's Steve Kerr on 2/6... Averaged career-best 26.6 ppg, 9.6 apg in 10 playoff games. 1992-93: Averaged 17.8 ppg, 7.8 apg in 49 games... Suns tallied a franchise-best 62-20 mark... Missed 33 games, 31 due to injury and two due to suspension following a brawl vs. New York on 3/23... Averaged 17.8 ppg, 7.9 apg in 23 playoff games... Played NBA Finals-record 62 minutes in Game Three at Chicago. 1991-92: Fell shy of extending streak of three-straight seasons averaging 20-points, 10-assists (1988-91)... Teamed with Jeff Hornacek to form one of the NBA's best guard tandems, posting 10.7 apg (second in NBA) and 19.7 ppg... Career-high 44 points in overtime win vs. Utah on 11/30... Averaged 23.6 ppg, 11.6 apg vs. Portland in Western Conference Finals. 1990-91: Led Suns in scoring (22.2), assists (10.1, third in NBA), and steals (2.12) while shooting career-best .516 from the field... Player of the Week (12/16, 29.3 ppg, 10.0 apg, 3.67 spg)... Averaged career playoff-lows of 12.8 ppg, .302 fg%, .600 ft% in first round exit vs. Utah. 1989-90: Third in NBA with 11.4 apg, just shy of eclipsing Magic Johnson's 11.5... Averaged career-best 22.5 ppg... Career-high 44 points vs. Milwaukee on 3/27... Set franchise-record with 23 free throws vs. Utah on 4/9... Averaged 21.3 ppg, 10.6 apg vs. Portland in Western Conference Finals. 1988-89: Averaged 20.4 ppg with career-bests of 12.2 apg (third in NBA) and 81 games played... 1994-95 MONTH-BY-MONTH

NOVEMBER — 10-4
Home: 7-0 Away: 3-4

Suns' depth was tested early after injuries sidelined Charles Barkley (11 games to start the season), KJ, and Wayman Tisdale. But stars like Danny Manning and Dan Majerle, as well as surprises Elliot Perry and Trevor Ruffin stepped forward. Manning anchored the inside with 19.0 ppg, 6.1 rpg, while Majerle led the team in scoring with 20.2 ppg and added 6.4 rpg, 4.0 apg. Perry averaged 10.3 ppg, 6.0 apg and 2.79 spg (second in the NBA). In one three-game stretch, he totaled 17 steals which earned him Player of the Week. Ruffin provided a much-needed spark off the bench and an additional three-point threat.

DECEMBER — 11-3
Home: 7-1 Away: 4-2

Suns grabbed the top spot in the Western Conference despite a seven-game road trip back East to start the month (4-2 record). The 12/6 game at Washington was rescheduled for 4/6 due to wet floor conditions. Following the trip, the Suns returned for an undefeated five-game homestand. The club's all-time non-single season home win streak ended at 25 games, as the LA Lakers handed the Suns their first home loss of the season on 12/30. Charles Barkley and KJ both returned from injuries. Danny Manning and Dan Majerle moved to the bench and finished the month averaging 16.1 ppg and 15.7 ppg, respectively.

JANUARY — 13-2
Home: 4-1 Away: 9-1

Suns held the top spot in the Western Conference and increased their lead in the Pacific Division, winning nine of 10 on the road, four of five at home. After winning their first five, Suns fell to visiting Cleveland, 107-96, on 1/12. The club got back on track, winning their next seven including a 111-110 overtime contest vs. Orlando on 1/22, the first overtime contest of the 1994-95 season. Suns set a franchise-record for consecutive road wins (nine) with a come-from-behind win at Philadelphia on 1/27. That game also clinched Paul Westphal's position as the West's coach in the All-Star game at America West Arena. The club's road-winning streak was snapped by New York, 107-88, on 1/29. KJ was again hampered by leg problems and played just three games.

FEBRUARY — 8-5
Home: 6-3 Away: 2-2

While injuries mounted, the Suns suffered their worst month since finishing 7-8 in 1/94. Danny Manning was lost for the season after suffering a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee at practice on 2/6. He was averaging 17.9 ppg, 6.0 rpg in 46 games. Following the All-Star break, Suns split a four-game homestand, playing two-straight overtime games. Charles Barkley was named Player of the Week (2/19, 36.0 ppg, 12.0 rpg, .560 fg%). Suns dropped three games at home, the most since 11/91. The team averaged 109.0 ppg and shot .482 fgs. Due to injuries, Paul Westphal was forced to use eight different starting lineups. KJ returned and played the final six games, averaging 18.8 ppg and 9.3 apg. All-Star Notes: Phoenix hosted the All-Star Game for the second time in team history (1975). Barkley and Dan Majerle were voted as starters, joining Westphal and his coaching staff. Rookies Wesley Person and Trevor Ruffin participated in the Schick Rookie Game. Majerle also participated in the AT&T Long Distance Shootout.

MARCH — 9-6
Home: 3-4 Away: 6-2

Suns started fast by winning their first four games. Victims included LA Lakers, Seattle, and Houston. The team's fortunes swooned, however, after losing six of their next nine, four at home. Suns lost three-straight for the first time all season while compiling their worst home record for a month since 2/88 (3-5). Charles Barkley stepped-up and had a huge month — in a loss to Houston on 3/24, he had 34 points and a career-high 26 rebounds, the most-ever at a Suns home game. KJ became only the 23rd NBA player to surpass the 10,000-point—5,000-assist mark with 15 points vs. Minnesota on 3/31.

APRIL — 8-3
Home: 5-0 Away: 3-3

Despite losing their first two games (at San Antonio, at Golden State), the Suns finished strong down the stretch by winning eight of their final nine, six-straight at home. Washington, Portland, Seattle, and San Antonio all fell victim to the Suns' rekindled passion. With 24 points in a home win over the Spurs, Charles Barkley became only the 12th NBA player to reach 19,000 points—9,000 rebounds. Suns finished the season 27-14 on the road, tying the franchise-record set in 1992-93. Suns' win vs. Dallas on 4/21 clinched their third division title (second in three years) and the second seed in the Western Conference playoff bracket.

"C" indicates a new career-high, "T" a tied career-high in FG, FT, REB, AST or PTS.
Numbers in parentheses indicate the number of games in which a player or team has reached a given total (if more than one).

1994-95 PACIFIC DIVISION CHAMPS:

With their 4/21 win over Dallas, coupled with Seattle's loss, the Suns won the 1994-95 Pacific Division title... It was their third Pacific Division crown as the Suns have won twice before: 1981 (57-25) and 1993 (62-20).

SUNS SPOTS:

The Suns won eight of their last nine games to finish with a 59-23 (.720) mark, third best in the league and second best in franchise history (62-20 in 1992-93)... Finished 32-9 (.780) at America West Arena and 27-14 (.659) on the road tying a franchise record set in 1992-93... Their +3.9 point differential ranked sixth... Suns were 44-2 on the season when leading after three quarters... In games decided by three points or less, the club was first at 8-2... Also finished 26-6 in games decided by seven or less... Phoenix was 4-2 in overtime games... Their bid to become the first team in NBA history to finish a season without losing two consecutive games ended with a 100-105 defeat in San Antonio on 2/22... It was also club's first when leading after three quarters... Suns suffered their first home loss of the season vs. the Lakers (127-112) on 12/30... The loss marked the end of their all-time consecutive, non-single season home winning streak of 25 games dating back to last season (previous last loss at home was 3/18/94 vs. Detroit)..

NBA'S BEST OVER LAST SEVEN SEASONS:

Since the 1988-89 season, the Suns have the best record in the NBA at 394-180 (.686)... Trailing the Suns with 389 victories are the Chicago Bulls... Phoenix has compiled seven straight 50-win campaigns... The seven-year stretch is five shy of the NBA record for consecutive 50+ win seasons: 12 by the Lakers ('79-'91)... The Celtics had 10 straight ('58-'68) and nine ('79-'88)... The Bucks ('80-'87) and 76ers ('79-'86) are tied with the Suns mark of seven straight... The Suns have turned last seven regular season successes into three trips to the Western Conference Finals and one trip to the NBA Finals in 1993 where they lost to Chicago 4-2.

Team	Record
Phoenix Suns	394-180 (.686)
Chicago Bulls	389-185 (.678)
Utah Jazz	375-199 (.653)
Portland Blazers	359-215 (.625)
New York Knicks	358-216 (.624)

RUNNING WITH THE BEST:

Suns were edged out by Orlando as the NBA's top scoring club... Phoenix finished with 9,073 points (110.6 ppg) while the Magic had 9,091 (110.9 ppg)... Suns led the NBA in scoring the previous two years... Over the past seven, Phoenix is the league's highest scoring team (113.1 ppg)... Suns set an NBA high with 79 first half points vs. LA Clippers on 11/23/94 in a 140-109 win.

PROTECTING THE ROCK:

Suns did their best job of protecting the ball since NBA totals in turnovers were first compiled during the 1970-71 season... Suns finished first in the league, committing only 1,167 turnovers (14.2 per game)... Club's previous record for fewest turnovers in a season was 1,242 (15.1 per game) in 1991-92... Phoenix committed an all-time team-low four turnovers on 1/17 vs. Denver, the second lowest total in NBA history... The all-time record for a season is 1,062 (13.0 per game) set by Minn. in 1990-91... As far as it relates to the team's record, squad was 39-7 (.848) when committing fewer turnovers than their opponents, 21-1 at home and 18-6 on the road... KJ was among NBA leaders in assist/turnover ratio (3.38) as was Majerle (3.25)... As a club, the Suns were tops in assist/turnover ratio (1.89).

INJURY REPORT:

Despite missing 172 player/games due to injury, the Suns finished with the third best record in the league... Nine players missed games due to injury or illness, including 13 by Barkley and 35 by KJ... Manning missed 36 games after he tore his anterior cruciate ligament in practice on 2/6... Tisdale missed 17 games, 10 due to separated and strained rib cartilage... Ainge (8), Lang (56), Person (3), Ruffin (1) and Dumas (2)... The injuries forced Westphal to use 25 different starting lineups with no unit starting more than 13 games... Manning and Lang both finished the season on the injured list.

ALL-SUN WEEKEND:

Barkley scored 15 points, nine boards, and Majerle added 10 for the Western Conference All-Star team, coached by the Suns' staff... The squad defeated the East, 139-112, at America West Arena on 2/12... Barkley appeared in his eighth All-Star game (has been named nine times)... For Westphal, who was a five-time All-Star during his playing days, it was his second victory as a coach (coached the West to a win as a rookie in 1993)... Rookie Wesley Person defeated his older brother, Chuck, of San Antonio in the Baby Ruth Shootout finals... Person was also a member of the winning team, coached by Cotton Fitzsimmons, in the Schick Rookie Game... Person tallied 13 points and four assists in the overtime win.

ROAD, SWEET ROAD:

With their 87-102 loss in Denver on 4/14, the Suns ended the regular season with a 27-14 (.658) road record, second in the league behind San Antonio and tied with Utah... The mark tied a franchise record set during the 1992-93 season.

THREE-POINTERS AND MORE:

Club set a franchise record for three-pointers made with 584 (second in league) and attempted with 1584 (third)... Suns previous highs were set in 1992-93 season when Phoenix set a then-NBA record with 398 makes in 1095 attempts... Majerle, who set a then NBA record with 192 makes in 1993-94, ranked second in makes (199) and first in attempts (548)... Person hit 116-266 (.436), Ainge 78-210 (.371)... Barkley hit 71-215 (.330) a career-high for makes... Green also set new career-bests hitting 42-123 (.341)... On 1/17, the Suns connected on a club-record 14 three-pointers en route to a 129-113 victory over Denver.

WESTPHAL REACHES 150 WINS:

Paul Westphal coached his 150th win on 1/26 in Indiana his 204th game, becoming the second fastest coach to reach 150 wins in NBA history... The Chicago Bulls' Phil Jackson reached 150 wins in 203 games... Miami's Pat Riley is third, reaching 150 in 212 games.

ATTENDANCE:

Suns sold out all 41 games, raised sellout streak to 223 games... Ranked seventh in NBA in home attendance, and second on the road behind Orlando... Phoenix's sell-out streak began 2/3/90 vs. Houston at Veteran's Coliseum... Suns have a 123-straight game sell out streak at America West Arena.

MINUTE MEN

Phoenix captured the lead and victory in the final minute of six games during the 1994-95 season.

12/2 AT BOSTON SUNS 107-102	A layup by Danny Manning with :58 to go broke a 100-100 tie and started a Suns' 7-2 run to seal the win.
12/27 AT DALLAS SUNS 119-118	Kevin Johnson scored the final four points of the game including a 17-foot baseline jumper with :3.7 left to capture the lead and victory.
1/22 VS. ORLANDO SUNS 111-110	After blowing a 14-point fourth quarter lead, the Suns needed a free throw from Elliot Perry with :00.4 left in overtime to capture a victory on NBC television.
1/27 AT PHILADELPHIA SUNS 108-107	Trailing 101-105 with :25.7 remaining, Charles Barkley banked a trey from the top of the key. Scott Williams was left open for a lob pass and dunked it to give the Sixers a three point lead, but Dan Majerle pulled up for a trey to tie the game at 107. As the Sixers looked for the final shot, Danny Ainge stole the ball with 1.9 seconds left and stole the game as he was fouled and hit the game-winning free throw.

KEY DATES

6/28 Charles Barkley announces decision to rehabilitate his back and continue his career with the Suns.

7/26 Upon exercising a one-year opt-out clause in his contract following last season, A.C. Green re-signed with the Suns for five years.

7/29 Under the guidance and counseling of the Suns, Charles Claxton, the club's second-round draft pick (50th overall) opted to finish his college eligibility at UGA... Under new NCAA guidelines, Claxton had 30 days to choose the NBA or a return to college... Suns retained his draft rights for one year.

8/2 NBA voided contract signed between Suns and A.C. Green on the grounds that it circumvented NBA's salary cap rules.

8/5 Suns and A.C. Green filed lawsuit against NBA, challenging its decision to invalidate the contract signed between Suns and Green on 7/26.

8/14 Kevin Johnson and Dan Majerle helped Dream Team II defeat Russia to capture the gold at the World Championships of Basketball in Toronto.

9/8 Signed Danny Manning to one-year contract.

9/15 Signed Antonio Lang to three-year-contract... Signed Winston Garland and undrafted rookie Aaron Swinson... Waived Jerrod Mustaf.

9/16 Signed unrestricted free agent Wayman Tisdale to one-year contract.

9/30 Signed Danny Schayes to one-year contract.

10/13 Waived Duane Cooper.

10/15 Charles Barkley pulled an abdominal muscle is a preseason game vs. Detroit... The injury would cause him to miss the first 11 games of the regular season.

10/24 During a preseason game vs. Orlando, Shaquille O'Neal collapsed and landed on top of Kevin Johnson... The incident was the cause of KJ's chain-reaction of leg injuries throughout the first five months of the season.

10/30 With a win over Milwaukee in Tucson, Suns ended their exhibition season with a perfect 8-0 record.

11/2 Trimmed roster to 12-man active limit by waiving Anthony Goldwire, Winston Garland, and Malcolm Mackey.

11/11 Signed Trevor Ruffin... Hours later, he scored 17 pts, including 4-5 treys, in a loss to Seattle, 123-129.

11/21 Elliot Perry named Player of the Week (11/20)... he averaged 16.0 pts and 5.6 steals as the Suns went 3-0.

11/26 After missing the first 11 games due to injury, Charles Barkley scored 23 points and grabbed seven rebounds in a 111-108 win vs. San Antonio in his first game back.

12/6 Suns' seven-game road trip, second longest in team history, was cut short when a game scheduled at Washington was cancelled due to condensation on the court... The game was rescheduled for 4/6.

12/27 After routing Dallas in Phoenix, 139-113, the night before, the Suns needed a 17-footer with 3.7 seconds left from Kevin Johnson to beat the Mavericks again, 119-118, in Dallas... Besides a team-high 28 points, KJ added 11 assists to surpass the 5,000-assist mark for his career.

12/29 Waived Aaron Swinson.

12/30 Suns lost their first home game of the season when the LA Lakers, led by former Sun, Cedric Ceballos, ended the Suns' all-time consecutive non-single season home winning streak of 25 games dating back to 1993-94 season (3/19 vs. New Jersey).

1/14 A 134-108 win over the LA Clippers began a seven-game win streak, longest of the season.

1/17 Suns connected on club-record 14 treys en route to a 129-113 victory over Denver... Phoenix committed an all-time team-low four turnovers, second lowest total in NBA history.

1/26 With win at Indiana, Paul Westphal coached his 150th win in 204 games, becoming the second-fastest coach to reach 150 wins in NBA history (Chicago's Phil Jackson, 203 games; Miami's Pat Riley, 212 games).

2/6 Danny Manning placed on injured list after suffering a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee in practice... Injury sidelined him sidelined for rest of the season (Averaging 17.9 ppg, 6.0 rpg in 46 games).

2/10 NBA All-Star Weekend tipped-off in Phoenix... Marked second time the city hosted the mid-season classic (1975).

2/11 Wesley Person started and tallied 13 points, two rebounds for the winning squad in the Schick Rookie Game on All-Star Saturday...Squad coached by Cotton Fitzsimmons... Person also defeated his older brother, Chuck, of San Antonio in the final round of the Baby Ruth Shootout.

2/12 Charles Barkley and Dan Majerle voted into starting roles on the Western Conference All-Star squad, a team coached by the Suns' coaching staff... The West defeated the Eastern team, 139-112.

KEY DATES

2/21 Charles Barkley named NBA Player of the Week after averaging 36 ppg and 12 rpg while leading the Suns to a 2-1 mark.

2/22 The Suns bid to become the first team in NBA history to finish a season without losing consecutive games ended with a 100-105 defeat in San Antonio... The loss also marked the team's first when leading after three quarters.

3/3 In a 122-118 win over Seattle, A.C. Green played in his 707th consecutive game surpassing Dolph Schayes for the third spot on the NBA all-time list, trails Johnny Kerr (844), Randy Smith (906).

3/13 Richard Dumas rejoined the Suns under the guidelines of the NBA's Anti-Drug agreement... Had been suspended on Sept. 15, 1993 for an indefinite period for violating the Anti-Drug program.

3/14 Richard Dumas activated by the Suns and played in his first game since the 1993 NBA Finals... Dumas played two minutes and scored four points vs. Detroit.

3/30 With a 113-96 win in Sacramento, the Suns reached the 50-win mark for the seventh season in a row (1988-95)... The NBA record for consecutive 50+ win seasons is 12 by the Lakers (1971-91)... The Celtics had 10 straight (1958-68) and nine (1979-88)... The Bucks (1980-87) and 76ers (1979-86) are tied with the Suns mark of seven straight.

3/31 KJ reached 10,000-point plateau for his career with a free throw in a Suns' win over Minnesota... Became 23rd player in NBA history to reach the 10,000-point—5,000-assist mark (sixth active player: J. Stockton, T. Porter, E. Floyd, D. Harper, C. Drexler)... Suns had two four-point plays in a 106-96 win over Minnesota, one each by Dan Majerle and Wesley Person in the first half... That total of two matches the club's all-time total since treys came into the NBA in 1979... Previous two by Walter Davis (2/12/88) and Eddie Johnson (11/29/89).

4/2 Charles Barkley scored 45 points in San Antonio, his regular season career-high as a Sun, and two shy of his all-time regular-season high of 47 (Philadelphia at Atlanta on 2/9/88).

4/6 Danny Ainge's 1,000th career three-pointer came vs. Washington. He became only the third player to reach the plateau (Reggie Miller and Dale Ellis).

4/13 Charles Barkley scored 24 points to bring his career total to 19,002, becoming one of only four active and 12 all-time players to surpass the 19,000-point—9,000-rebound plateau.

4/14 An 87-102 loss in Denver gave the Suns a 27-14 road record for the season, tying a franchise-record set in 1992-93.

4/15 Charles Barkley is forced to miss a game vs. the LA Lakers after being suspended under the league's "five-point" flagrant foul rule... Barkley committed his sixth flagrant foul the night before on Denver's Bryant Stith.

4/21 With a 110-99 win vs. Dallas in Phoenix, the Suns clinched the Pacific Division title... It was the third for the franchise, and the second in three seasons.

4/23 The Suns finished the season with a 105-100 win vs. Seattle, and earned the league's third-best record (59-23)... The Suns have a string of seven-straight seasons with 50+ wins.

5/17 Waived Richard Dumas.

6/1 Paul Silas hired as assistant coach.

6/14 Signed Stefano Rusconi of Benetton Treviso of Italian League to a three-year contract.

7/1 NBA lockout of players begins.

7/26 Donn Nelson hired as assistant coach.

9/18 NBA lockout ends, players resume contact with league and teams.

9/25 Signed free agents Elliot Perry and John Coker.

10/2 Signed rookie Chris Carr.

1995 PLAYOFF REVIEW

FIRST ROUND
PHOENIX SUNS 3 VS. PORTLAND TRAIL BLAZERS 0

After winning eight of their last nine games in the regular season, the Suns entered the postseason as the number two seed in the Western conference and swept the Portland Trail Blazers 3-0.

The Suns set the tone for the series in the playoff opener, outrebounding the Blazers 45-37 for a 129-102 victory. Charles Barkley had 16 of those boards to go with 29 points while Dan Majerle hit 7-of-10 treys for 25 points. Game Two looked like a replay as A.C. Green grabbed 15 rebounds and Kevin Johnson added 28 points to give Phoenix a commanding 2-0 lead in the best-of-five series.

Barkley took control of Game Three in Portland, pouring in 47 points to finish the final game ever to be played in the Blazers' Memorial Coliseum, while sending the Suns on to a semi-finals rematch with the Houston Rockets.

WESTERN CONFERENCE SEMI-FINALS
PHOENIX SUNS 3 VS. HOUSTON ROCKETS 4

Upon sweeping the Trail Blazers in the first round of the playoffs, the Suns entered their rematch with the Houston Rockets on fire. Unlike last year, the Suns held the home court advantage in the series and won the first two games at the America West Arena continuing their dominance on the glass. A.C. Green led the way with 29 boards in the first two contests.

The entire Suns' squad struggled in Game Three, led by Charles Barkley's 0-for-10 from the field, as the Rockets won their first game in the series at the Summit. Although Kevin Johnson's 43 points in Game Four gave the Suns a 3-1 lead in the series, the defending champion Rockets battled back to win three straight including a Game Five overtime win and a Game Seven one-point victory, both in Phoenix.

HISTORY

On January 22, 1968 the NBA Board of Governors granted a franchise to the city of Phoenix. On April 25, 1968, the name "SUNS" was selected in a contest sponsored by The Arizona Republic. The winning entry was submitted by Mrs. Selinda King of Phoenix.

The Suns began building their team by naming Johnny Kerr as head coach. Kerr, who had coached the Chicago Bulls for the previous two years, was the NBA's Coach of the Year in 1966-67. Next was the 1968 NBA College Draft. Their first selection was Gary Gregor, a 6-7 forward from South Carolina. They continued to build the young squad by making Dick Van Arsdale the first player taken in the expansion draft. Van Arsdale had played the previous three years with New York. Phoenix also selected guard Gail Goodrich, a three-year-pro, from the Los Angeles Lakers.

On October 18th, the Suns opened their rookie season with a 116-107 victory over Seattle as 7,112 fans filled Veterans Memorial Coliseum. Goodrich led the team with 27 points, 10 assists and nine rebounds while Van Arsdale pitched in 21 points. The Suns went on to finish the month with a 4-3 mark. But that was the last time they would be above .500 as they suffered through the rest of their first season to finish with a 16-66 record.

Goodrich and Van Arsdale led the Suns averaging 23.8 and 21.0 points per game, respectively. Goodrich finished sixth in the league in scoring and third as a guard behind Baltimore's Earl Monroe and Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson. Both players also appeared in the NBA All-Star game at Baltimore.

FRONT ROW: Gail Goodrich, Stan McKenzie, Dick Van Arsdale, Bob Warlick, Dick Snyder.

69 PHOENIX SUNS 70

With the addition of veterans Paul Silas and Connie Hawkins, the young Suns enjoyed a 13-game turnaround and a trip to their first-ever playoffs. Silas, obtained in a trade with Atlanta for Gary Gregor, gave the team additional inside strength averaging nearly 12 rebounds per game. While Hawkins joined the Suns after a two-year stint in the ABA, where he was among the leaders in scoring, and one year with the Harlem Globetrotters.

On January 2, Suns coach Johnny Kerr resigned just five hours prior to that night's game against San Diego. General Manager Jerry Colangelo took over as coach and Hawkins hit a 14-foot jump shot with four seconds left to give Phoenix a 121-120 victory over the Rockets that night.

Colangelo guided the team to a 24-20 mark over the rest of the season en route to a third-place finish behind Atlanta and Los Angeles and the franchise's first postseason action. The Suns drew the LA Lakers in the first round and dropped the opening game in L.A., 112-128. But the Suns showed character as they picked up the next three games behind superb play from Silas, Hawkins and Gail Goodrich. However, the likes of Wilt Chamberlain, Jerry West and Elgin Baylor were too much for the Suns as the Lakers clinched the series in seven games.

Van Arsdale made his second appearance in the All-Star game along with the team's scoring leader Hawkins. Hawkins also earned first team All-Pro honors.

FRONT ROW: Art Harris, Dick Van Arsdale, Stan McKenzie, Gail Goodrich.

70 PHOENIX SUNS 71

Dick Van Arsdale returned for his third season with Phoenix and was the only original Sun remaining. Offseason trades brought veterans Mel Counts and Clem Haskins to the team. In spite of the success the club enjoyed at the tail end of the 1969-70 season, General Manager Jerry Colangelo felt the Suns needed a "career" coach. He set out to find a teacher and a motivator who could mold the Suns' young players. On June 5, 1970, Lowell "Cotton" Fitzsimmons joined the Suns as head coach.

Fitzsimmons had led the Kansas State Wildcats to the Big Eight title the previous year, and brought a sense of passion and "purple pride" to the Valley. The club responded to his enthusiasm.

Phoenix posted its best finish with a 48-34 record, fourth best in the league. That included the team's best month ever with a 11-4 mark in January. However, due to the Suns place in the tough Midwest Division, the team failed to make the playoffs.

Paul Silas led the team in rebounding for the second straight season pulling down 12.5 per game including a team record 27 vs. Cincinnati on January 18. Van Arsdale led the club in scoring with a 21.9 average while Connie Hawkins netted 20.9 per game. Van Arsdale and Hawkins were again named to the All-Star game. Hawkins was named as a starter while Van Arsdale made his third straight appearance.

Cotton Fitzsimmons began his second year at the helm. The Suns drafted Dennis Layton, a 6-1 point guard from USC who played previously at Phoenix College. The Suns opened the season with a starting lineup of Clem Haskins and Dick Van Arsdale at guard, Neal Walk at center and Connie Hawkins and Paul Silas at the forward spots.

On March 14, the Suns obtained the rights to Charlie Scott from the Boston Celtics in exchange for future considerations. Scott, a 6-6 guard from North Carolina, had played for the Virginia Squires of the ABA, where he averaged 35 points per game.

Phoenix posted a club record 49-33 won-lost mark, improving for the fourth consecutive year. However, despite having the sixth best record in the NBA, the Suns finished behind Milwaukee and Chicago in the Midwest Division and failed to qualify for the playoffs.

Hawkins and Silas represented the West team in the All-Star game. It was Hawkins' third straight appearance, as he led the West squad to a 112-110 win with 13 points.

Silas was named as the Suns Most Valuable Player by the fans as he led the team in rebounding for the third straight year (11.9). Hawkins led the club in scoring with a 21.0 average while Van Arsdale averaged 19.7 points per game. The Suns topped their previous best in attendance totalling 342,922 fans, an average of 8,346 per contest. Phoenix also became only the fourth team in history to lead the NBA in free throws attempted, free throws made and free throw accuracy.

The Suns began the season under the franchise's fourth head coach, Bill van Breda Kolff, who replaced Cotton Fitzsimmons. Fitzsimmons left in the offseason to coach the Atlanta Hawks. However, seven games into the season, Van Breda Kolff was replaced and General Manager Jerry Colangelo assumed the coaching duties for the remainder of the season.

Phoenix played .500 ball through mid-January before struggling through the second half of the season to finish 38-44 and third in the Pacific Division. Charlie Scott led the club in scoring with a franchise record 25.3 average and finished fifth in the NBA. He also became the 10th guard in league history to score more than 2,000 points. Scott, along with Connie Hawkins, were named to the Western Conference All-Star team. It was Scott's first appearance while Hawkins was making his fourth consecutive visit.

Neal Walk led the team in minutes played with 3,114 and became the second 1,000 rebound man in club history with 1,006. Rookie Corky Calhoun from the University of Pennsylvania was the only Sun to play in all 82 games.

FRONT ROW: Scott English, Lamar Green, Walt Wesley, Head Coach Jerry Colangelo, Neal Walk, Connie Hawkins, Corky Calhoun.

John MacLeod took the Suns coaching reins from General Manager Jerry Colangelo during the offseason. MacLeod, had coached the previous six years at the University of Oklahoma leading the Sooners to the NIT twice.

New to the team were rookie Mike Bantom, the eighth pick in the 1973 NBA draft, and Keith Erickson, who was acquired in the first month of the season from the LA Lakers in exchange for Connie Hawkins. Phoenix went on a 10-game skid early in the season as they were learning a new system under MacLeod and playing one of the roughest portions of their schedule. The Suns finished fourth in the Pacific Division with a 30-52 mark, their lowest number of wins since their inaugural season.

Charlie Scott made his second straight appearance in the All-Star game after leading the Western Conference in scoring with a 26.6 average. He finished the season averaging 25.4 points per game but missed the final 29 games with a broken arm. Van Arsdale led the club with 17.8 points per game and field goal percentage (.500). Erickson was voted by fans as the Suns' Most Outstanding Player.

FRONT ROW: Bob Christian, Lamar Green, Neal Walk, Head Coach John MacLeod, Corky Calhoun, Mike Bantom, Keith Erickson.

The season was preceded by one of the largest transactions in Suns history with center Neal Walk and a second-round draft pick going to New Orleans in exchange for Curtis Perry, Dennis Awtrey, Nate Hawthorne and a first-round pick in 1976.

Also new to the team was rookie John Shumate, a 6-8 forward from Notre Dame who was the fourth pick in the 1974 NBA draft. Unfortunately, Shumate had to sit out his rookie season so he could receive treatment for blood clots. Perry had his best season as a pro averaging 13 points and 12 rebounds per game, winning both the Suns' Most Outstanding and Most Popular Player awards.

Charlie Scott was the Suns' lone All-Star representative, but for a few hours on February 14, 1975, Phoenix became the "Professional Basketball Capital of the World." The 25th annual All-Star game was the first one ever played in Phoenix. Scott finished the season as the club's leading scorer with 24.3 points per game.

In late February, the Suns had a shot at the NBA playoffs, but injuries to Dick Van Arsdale and Keith Erickson knocked them from contention. The Suns finished fourth in the Pacific Division with a 32-50 mark.

75 PHOENIX SUNS 76

The most exciting season in Suns history began with the Suns flying out of the gate with a 14-9 start, their best ever. A string of injuries and a puzzling mid-season slump had the Suns winning only four of their next 22, but after the All-Star break the Suns caught fire going 24-13 and storming into the playoffs against the Seattle SuperSonics.

There were several reasons for the Suns' turnaround: A Charlie Scott for Paul Westphal trade in the off-season, the drafting of Alvan Adams and Ricky Sobers, the acquisition of Al Bianchi as assistant coach, and the mid-season trade that sent John Shumate to Buffalo and brought Garfield Heard to Phoenix.

Phoenix eliminated the Seattle Supersonics 4-2, then went on to upset the World Champion Golden State Warriors, 4-3, and gain a berth in the NBA Finals against the fabled Boston Celtics. The Suns lost the first two games in Boston, but came back to knot the series with a pair of victories in Phoenix.

Game Five will go down in basketball history as one of the most exciting games ever played: A triple overtime contest that eluded the Suns by a few precious seconds and cost them the World Championship. Boston won the series 4-2.

Rookie Alvan Adams was named the NBA Rookie of the Year and became only the tenth first-year player to be named to the mid-season All-Star game. General Manager Jerry Colangelo was named Executive of the Year by The Sporting News.

76 PHOENIX SUNS 77

It could have been the best of times. With the addition of first round draft pick Ron Lee, and Tom and Dick Van Arsdale playing together for the first time as pros, the Suns were certain to make another strong playoff run. Indeed, the Suns entered the year with the highest of expectations, but had to watch helplessly as injuries eventually claimed the entire starting front line.

Forwards Gar Heard and Curtis Perry each missed nearly half the season and center Alvan Adams, who was injured in the fourth game of the season, didn't regain top form until February. The Suns had all players healthy and available for duty for only six games the entire season. The Suns finished 34-48, 5th in the Pacific Division.

Paul Westphal led the club in scoring (21.3) for the second straight season and was named to the All-NBA team for the first time in his career. Rookie Lee was named to the NBA All-Rookie team and the Suns set a new home attendance mark, averaging over 10,000 fans per game.

Westphal was voted to the starting unit of the West squad at the NBA All-Star game in Milwaukee, scored 20 points and nearly captured the game's MVP award. As a team, the Suns set a new assist record (2,100) breaking the record they set in 1975-76. At the conclusion of the season, both Van Arsdale's retired from the NBA.

77 PHOENIX SUNS 78

The Suns announced a blockbuster trade just before the opening of the season: Ricky Sobers to Indiana for guard Don Buse, an All-Star and the NBA leader in both assists and steals. With Buse and rookie Walter Davis in the starting line-up, the Suns bolted from the gate, were 19-11 by Christmas and 34-16 by the February All-Star break. They finished with a 49-33 record, fourth best in basketball, but were second in the Pacific Division behind the formidable Portland Trail Blazers.

It was a record year for the Suns in many ways. A franchise record was set for attendance (11,464 per game) and on the court, the Suns set NBA records for team steals in a season (1059) as well as tying the league mark for assists (2338). Davis and Paul Westphal were among the league's top 10 scorers, both averaging better than 24 points per game; both were named second team All-NBA and both participated for the West at the All-Star game in Atlanta, Westphal as a starter.

At the All-Star break, the Suns lost forward Curtis Perry with back problems and went the rest of the season with five rookies on the roster, more than any other NBA club. In the opening round of the NBA playoffs the Suns were upset in two straight games by the Milwaukee Bucks.

Davis went on to become the league's Rookie of the Year, the second such distinction for a Suns' player since Alvan Adams won the award following the 1975-76 season. Buse was also named to the NBA All-Defensive team, and Ron Lee led the league with 2.7 steals per game.

BACK ROW: Ronnie Lee, Curtis Perry, Alvan Adams, Dennis Awtrey, Bayard Forrest

*OVERTIME  DOUBLE OVERTIME

78 PHOENIX SUNS 79

Phoenix opened the regular season with the same starting lineup that began the 77-78 season: Walter Davis and Gar Heard at forward, Alvan Adams at center, with Paul Westphal and Don Buse at guard. The Suns won five of their first six games and were 24-14 by January 1. By the All-Star break the Suns were 32-20. For the third straight year, Westphal started in the All-Star classic, and Davis made it for the second year in a row.

On January 12, 1979 the Suns obtained Len "Truck" Robinson from the New Orleans Jazz in exchange for guard Ron Lee, forward Marty Byrnes, first-round picks in 1979 and 1980 and undisclosed cash. With an emotional overtime win over Seattle at Phoenix on March 30, the Suns qualified for the NBA playoffs for the second year in a row and the fourth time in their 11 NBA seasons.

The Suns won eight games in a row down the stretch before losing their last two games at San Diego and at Los Angeles to close the 1978-79 season 50-32. The Suns field goal percentage of .512 set a club record and was second in the NBA to the LA Lakers. The Suns also set a club record for assists with 2,500.

Phoenix led the NBA in steals with 915 (11.2 per game). Westphal was named first team All NBA, Davis was named to the second team. Buse was named to the All-Defensive squad. In the playoffs, the Suns got by Portland (2-1), thrashed Kansas City (4-1), but lost 3-4 to eventual World Champion Seattle in a hard-fought Western Conference Final. Westphal averaged 24.0 points per game in Phoenix's three wins over Seattle.

FRONT ROW: Head Coach John MacLeod, Paul Westphal, Ted McClain, Trainer Joe Proski (kneeling), Don Buse, Mike Bratz, Assistant Coach Al Bianchi.

Phoenix opened the regular season on October 12 with a starting line-up of Walter Davis and Truck Robinson at forward, Alvan Adams at center and Don Buse and Paul Westphal at guard. The Suns were the only team in the NBA with five former All-Star game participants as starters. By New Year's Day, Phoenix was 26-14 and 35-19 at the All-Star break. During December, the Suns hammered out a nine-game winning streak to tie an all-time club record. Jeff Cook was the starting center in eight of the nine games, as Alvan Adams sat out with a foot injury.

On February 15, the Suns obtained 7-0 center Rich Kelley from the New Jersey Nets in exchange for a second-round Suns draft pick in 1983, a first-round pick in 1982 and cash. The Suns chased Seattle and the LA Lakers for the Pacific Division lead for virtually the entire 82-game schedule, moving into a tie for the lead in late November and early December.

For the majority of the season though, the Suns were ensconced in third place in the Pacific. For the second season in a row Buse, Adams, Davis and Westphal all finished with over 300 assists, the only time in NBA history that four players on the same team had accomplished the feat. Davis and Westphal played in the NBA All-Star game in Washington and Westphal was named first team, Davis second team on the post-season All-NBA squad. In the playoffs, the Suns defeated Kansas City 2-1, then lost to the LA Lakers 1-4.

FRONT ROW: Assistant Coach John Wetzel, Don Buse, Paul Westphal, Trainer Joe Proski (kneeling), Head Coach John MacLeod, Johnny High, Mike Bratz, Assistant Coach Al Bianchi.

80 PHOENIX SUNS 81

When the Suns opened the campaign in October, questions surrounded newcomer Dennis Johnson, who had come to the Suns in the controversial deal that sent Paul Westphal to Seattle. There also were doubts about the Suns ability to adjust to the move of All-Star forward Walter Davis to the backcourt and the addition of Jeff Cook into the starting line-up at forward. The Suns responded with their most successful season ever, finishing with a club-record 57 wins en route to their first division title and clinching the best record in the Western Conference. Phoenix was out of first place for only two days.

The Suns 36-5 home record tied their 1979-80 mark as the best in the club's history and their 21-20 record on the road was the first winning road record in the team's annals. The Suns did not lose more than two games in a row all season.

The All-Star game in Cleveland had a distinctive Phoenix flavor with John MacLeod and the Suns coaching staff at the helm of the West Squad. Davis was voted to a starting forward position by the fans and Johnson and Truck Robinson were named to the team by a vote of Western Conference coaches. In the playoffs, the Suns were surprised by a gritty Kansas City Kings club, led by former Suns' head coach Cotton Fitzsimmons, that took the Western Conference semi-finals 4-3. At season's end, Johnson was named to the All-NBA team and was honored on the NBA's All-Defensive team. Suns General Manager Jerry Colangelo was named NBA Executive of the Year for the second time by The Sporting News.

The Suns were dealt a crippling blow just days before the season opened, when guard Walter Davis suffered a fractured elbow in the club's final pre-season game. Kyle Macy joined Dennis Johnson, Alvan Adams, Truck Robinson and Jeff Cook in the Suns' opening night starting lineup. Seeking the right combinations and the proper chemistry, 1981-82 became a season of constant change and experimentation.

Alvin Scott supplanted Cook in the starting lineup and later in the season Scott was supplanted by Adams, who shifted from his normal center position to allow Rich Kelley into the starting lineup. Davis began his comeback in late December, but it became clear his elbow, still joined by surgical tension wires and screws, would keep him from reaching top form. He was used in a sixth man role most of the year.

With a month to go in the season, the Suns found themselves embroiled in a heated Western Conference playoff race. The Suns finished the regular season with a 46-36 mark, good enough for third place in the NBA Pacific Division and a playoff berth. Phoenix opened post season play by defeating Denver 2-1 in a hard-fought mini-series, winning the deciding game on the Nuggets' home court. In the Western Conference Semi-Finals, however, the Suns ran into a Los Angeles Lakers juggernaut and were swept by the Lakers (0-4) who went on to sweep San Antonio (4-0), then defeated Philadelphia 4-2 to win the NBA Championship. Johnson was named to the NBA All-Defensive team and was the lone Suns representative at the mid-season All-Star game in New Jersey.

82 PHOENIX SUNS 83

The Suns were ready for some changes. They traded Truck Robinson to New York for power forward Maurice Lucas. They installed 6-10 second-year man Larry Nance at the small forward slot and welcomed back a healthy Walter Davis at guard. The only holdovers in the starting lineup from 1981-82 were center Alvan Adams and guard Dennis Johnson.

As the season progressed, so did Nance. He finished the year by leading the Suns in field goal percentage (.550) and set a new franchise record for blocked shots in a season with 217.

In spite of their success, the Suns had a glaring weakness at back-up center, where they juggled Jeff Cook, Joel Kramer and Lucas. With starting center Adams undersized at 6-9, the Suns needed help in the middle. So, Suns General Manager Jerry Colangelo traded Cook, cash, a third round draft pick in 1983 and other considerations to Cleveland in exchange for 7-1 center James Edwards, who was coming back after early season knee surgery.

From the All-Star break the Suns won 23 of the 30 games and finished the season as the hottest team in the league, winning six straight. Phoenix won 14 of its final 16 games and in the process matched its best-ever season road record (21-20). The Suns qualified for post-season play for the sixth straight year and the seventh time in eight seasons, but were eliminated by the Denver Nuggets, 2-1, in the opening round.

83 PHOENIX SUNS 84

Due to a flood of injuries to such key players as James Edwards, Rick Robey and Paul Westphal, Suns head coach John MacLeod was constantly forced to juggle his starting assignments, searching for a consistency that did not materialize until late in the season.

Walter Davis returned to the Western Conference All-Star squad and Larry Nance won the NBA Slam Dunk Championship at Denver.

The Suns struggled on the road. Only their fine home court record (31-10) kept them in the playoff race until the late stages of the season, when they put together six straight wins, their longest winning streak of the season.

The Suns saved their most remarkable performances for the playoffs. They defeated Portland in a hard-fought five-game opening round series, winning the fifth and deciding game on the Blazers' home court. They proceeded to upend Midwest Division Champion Utah in six games in the next round, highlighted by a remarkable 111-110 overtime win in game four at the Coliseum. The Suns then took on the LA Lakers in the Western Conference Finals. The Suns pushed the talented LA Lakers to six games, defeating them 135-127 in overtime in Game Three in Phoenix and staving off elimination with a 126-121 upset win in Los Angeles with a dogged performance in Game Five. The Suns were finally eliminated in Game Six, but only when their final shot didn't connect in a 99-97 nail-biter.

84 PHOENIX SUNS 85

The Suns addition of promising rookie guard Jay Humphries gave hope for the upcoming season. The optimism proved ephemeral, however, when the Suns' leading scorer and five-time All-Star, Walter Davis, crashed to the Inglewood Forum floor with three torn ligaments in his left knee. Davis would miss the first two-thirds of the season and would never regain full mobility during a courageous comeback attempt.

Rick Robey, Mike Sanders, Kyle Macy and Larry Nance also would miss considerable time due to injury, bringing the Suns total for the year to 266 player/games-missed.

The Suns jumped out to a surprising 5-0 start, the best beginning in the history of the franchise. It was Nance who assumed the leadership role with Davis gone, leading the club in scoring (19.9) and virtually every other statistical category. Nance was named the NBA's first Player of the Week for 1984-85 and would go on to make his first appearance in an NBA All-Star game.

The Suns ranked second in the NBA in assists (2335) dishing out over 2,000 for the 10th year in a row. They qualified for the playoffs, but were knocked out 3-0 in the first round by the LA Lakers.

The Suns averaged 12,035 fans per game, setting a new attendance record for the franchise, breaking the old mark of 11,883 per game set during the 1981-82 campaign.

The Suns ended the regular season with "Suns Reunion '85," bringing back 24 former Suns players and coaches to participate in a weekend of Suns nostalgia, capped by an exhibition basketball game.

*OVERTIME  TRIPLE OVERTIME

85 PHOENIX SUNS 86

In the weeks preceding the opener, the Suns confirmed their desire to go with youth and speed by trading veteran forward Maurice Lucas to the LA Lakers and allowing free agent guard Kyle Macy to sign with the Chicago Bulls. All-Star forward Larry Nance was a contract holdout through training camp and the pre-season before coming to terms one game into the regular season. Opening night's starting lineup consisted of Jay Humphries and Walter Davis at guard, Alvan Adams at center, with Mike Sanders and Charles Jones at the forward spots.

Phoenix got off to the worst start in franchise history, going 0-9. During that period, the Suns successfully negotiated for the services of Georgi Glouchkov, a 6-8 center from the Bulgarian National Team, who became the first Eastern Bloc player to play in the NBA. At first, Glouchkov captured national media attention, as well as the affection of Phoenix fans, but communication difficulty, not to mention achilles tendinitis, would drastically curtail his playing time as the season progressed.

Both Davis and Adams passed the 12,000-point plateau for their NBA careers with Davis taking over the Suns all-time scoring lead. Davis led the team in scoring (21.8), while Nance became the club's top rebounder (8.5). For the first time in their history, the Suns did not place a player on the squad for the mid-season NBA All-Star game.

Suns attendance held its own for the season, with an average of 11,121 per game. The Suns could never recover from their 0-9 beginning and finished the year 32-50, failing to make the playoffs for the first time in nine seasons.

FRONT ROW: Assistant Coach John Wetzel, Head Coach John MacLeod, Rod Foster, Walter Davis, Bernard Thompson, Mike Sanders, Jay Humphries, Assistant Coach Al Bianchi, Trainer Joe Proski.

The Suns opened the season with Larry Nance and Ed Pinckney at forward, Alvan Adams at center and Walter Davis and Jay Humphries at guard. That unit would start 26 of the Suns 82 games, but 19 other starting combinations would get a shot along the way. Phoenix had five rookies on the club including William Bedford, the team's first round pick (sixth overall), Jeff Hornacek, Rafael Addison, Grant Gondrezick and Kenny Gattison. The Suns split their first ten and their first 20 games, but their 12-12 record in mid-December would be the last time they would be at .500.

On February 26th, after consecutive losses to the LA Lakers and their record at 22-34, the Suns released their head coach of 13-plus seasons, John MacLeod, replacing him with Interim Head Coach Dick Van Arsdale. Under Van Arsdale, the Suns halted their skid, going 14-12 over the season's final 26 games. During the final two weeks of the season, the Suns won nine of their last ten games and 12 of their last 15. They won nine straight at home to end the season. Davis led the team in scoring with a 23.6 average while Nance chipped in 22.5 points per game. Davis also made his sixth appearance in the All-Star game in February.

When the Phoenix Suns projected their opening night lineup for the 1987-88 season, rookie Head Coach John Wetzel envisioned a starting unit of Larry Nance and Armon Gilliam at forward, James Edwards at center with Walter Davis and Jay Humphries at guard. During the season's final month, the Suns' starting unit had evolved into Eddie Johnson at small forward, Mark West at center, Kevin Johnson and Jeff Hornacek at guard.

The Suns finished the season with a 28-54 record, their poorest record since their 16-66 expansion season in 1968-69. However, in Suns history, 1987-88 will likely be referred to as "The Year of the Trade." In late February, Suns Director of Player Personnel, Cotton Fitzsimmons orchestrated a series of trades that changed the face and the fortunes of the Suns. It was the largest single transaction in the 20-year history of the Suns franchise. Fitzsimmons dealt Nance and Mike Sanders, along with Detroit's first round pick in 1988 to Cleveland in exchange for the Cav's first and second round draft picks in 1988, and players K. Johnson, West and Tyrone Corbin. The Suns finished off the trading flurry by sending Humphries to Milwaukee for Craig Hodges.

After the anticipated adjustment period following a major trade, the Suns put together a respectable 11-9 record over the last quarter of the season.

Shortly after the end of the season, Wetzel was released and was replaced by Fitzsimmons, who was making his third appearance as the Suns' head coach.

FRONT ROW: Head Coach John Wetzel, Ron Moore, Jeff Cook, Armon Gilliam, Mark West, Alvan Adams, James Bailey, Assistant Coach Herb Brown, Trainer Joe Proski.

88 PHOENIX SUNS 89

When the season began, no one predicted that the Suns would end up with the fourth best record in the NBA and give the defending World Champion LA Lakers a serious run for the Pacific Division title. The Suns did just that on their way to the third biggest turnaround in NBA history, improving by 27 games.

The 1988-89 Suns did not resemble any Suns team of the past since just one player, Jeff Hornacek, remained on the squad from two years before. Director of Player Personnel Cotton Fitzsimmons took over as head coach and brought assistant coaches Paul Westphal, Lionel Hollins and Truck Robinson on board.

The Suns won 55 games, winning 18 of their last 22 games. They were the only team in the league to have three players average 20+ points (Tom Chambers 25.7, E. Johnson 21.5, K. Johnson 20.4) and led the league with 118.6.

The Suns set a new Coliseum attendance record in '88-89. They averaged 12,465 at home with 18 sellouts, also a franchise record.

The Suns defeated Denver in the first round of the playoffs. They won their second round series vs. Golden State 4-1. Next up were the LA Lakers in the Western Conference Finals. They played the Lakers tough but were shut out 4-0.

The Suns were showered with post-season awards. Eddie Johnson won the NBA Sixth Man Award, Kevin Johnson was named the Most Improved Player, Fitzsimmons won NBA Coach of the Year and President and CEO Jerry Colangelo was named NBA Executive of the Year for the third time. It was the first time in NBA history that a team won four post-season league awards. Chambers and K. Johnson were also selected to the All-NBA second team.

FRONT ROW: Assistant Coach Lionel Hollins, Assistant Coach Paul Westphal, Dan Majerle, Dean Garrett, Mark West, Armon Gilliam, Tyrone Corbin, Trainer Joe Proski, Head Coach Cotton Fitzsimmons.

The 1989-90 team finished 54-28 and accomplished many things along the way. The Suns had a strong nucleus with eight players returning from the previous year's team.

The Suns led the NBA in differential between points scored and points allowed (7.1) for the second season in a row. They ended the season second in the NBA in points scored (114.9). Their 22 road wins established a new team record. The Suns established a new NBA record on April 9 when they hit 61 free throws vs. Utah. They set a new team record for most blocked shots in a season (501). The Suns also won a single season cluib record 19 in a row at home during the season.

Head Coach Cotton Fitzsimmons reached the .500 mark for his career with a win over Philadelphia on February 24. It was the first time he was at the .500 level since March 7, 1976 when he was head coach of Atlanta. Fitzsimmons, the 1988-89 NBA Coach of the Year, was named Coach of the Month for February. He ended the 1989-90 season approaching 700 wins for his seventeen-year coaching career.

The Suns set a new all-time regular season home attendance record on April 3 vs. Dallas and played to 578,661 fans. The Suns had 26 sellouts, which set a new franchise record, topping the old mark of 18 set in 1988-89.

Phoenix began playoff competition with a hard-fought 3-2 series win over Utah. They then defeated the LA Lakers 4-1 in the Western Conference Semifinals, the first time a Suns team defeated the Lakers in a seven-game playoff series. The Suns then lost to Portland 4-2 in the conference finals. Tom Chambers and Kevin Johnson were both named to the second team All-NBA squad.

Following two consecutive trips to the Western Conference Finals and two straight 50+ win seasons, expectations of the Suns in 1990-91 were high. They finished 55-27, their third straight 50+ season.

After finishing with the best preseason record in club history (7-1), the Suns took off for Tokyo, Japan to open the season with two games against the Utah Jazz. It marked the first time that professional sports teams from the United States played regular season games outside of North America. The Suns and Jazz split the two games.

The Suns set several records vs. Denver on Nov. 10. In that game, Head Coach Cotton Fitzsimmons won his 700th career game, becoming only the seventh coach in NBA history to achieve that mark. As a team, the Suns set a new NBA record for points in a half, scoring 107 first-half points, and tied the record for total number of points in a non-overtime game with 173.

On November 27 in Portland, the Suns defeated the Trail Blazers 123-109, ending a 20-game losing streak in Portland.

On December 7 the Suns sent Eddie Johnson and draft picks to the Seattle SuperSonics for Xavier McDaniel. McDaniel helped the team to a 10-5 mark in December. Phoenix bounced back in March going 13-3. The 13 wins tied the club record for most wins in any month. The injury bug caught the Suns in April as Kevin Johnson and Dan Majerle each missed five games and Tom Chambers missed three. Phoenix finished the month 6-5.

Phoenix finished the year with a 32-9 record at home and a 23-18 mark on the road. Their 23 road wins eclipsed the record of 22 set during the 1989-90 season. They lost in the opening round of the playoffs, 1-3, to the Utah Jazz.

BACK ROW: Joe Proski, Xavier McDaniel, Ed Nealy, Tim Perry, Tom Chambers, Joe Barry Carroll, Andrew Lang, Mark West, Kurt Rambis, Ian Lockhart.

91 PHOENIX SUNS 92

The Suns' 53-29 record marked their fourth straight year with 50+ wins. During that four-year stretch, Phoenix compiled a 217-111 regular season mark, the fifth best record in the NBA, behind only the Chicago Bulls, the LA Lakers, the Detroit Pistons and the Portland Trail Blazers. The Suns opened the season with a grueling November in which they went 8-9. They rebounded and went 11-1 in December, 10-6 in January, 16-6 in an injury-plagued February, 12-3 in March and 5-4 in April.

The season included the franchise's 1,000th career win as they became just the 12th franchise in NBA history to reach the 1,000 win plateau and only Milwaukee, Boston, Philadelphia and the Lakers did so in less time. Phoenix's 36-5 home record equalled the team's previous best set during the 1978-90 and 1980-81 seasons.

Five Suns players — Jeff Hornacek, Kevin Johnson, Dan Majerle, Tom Chambers and Tim Perry — averaged double figure scoring as Phoenix averaged 112.1 points per game, second in the league.

The Suns completed their 24th and final season at the Veterans' Memorial Coliseum by setting a new regular season attendance record. The Suns defeated San Antonio 3-0 in the first round and lost to Portland, 1-4 in the second round of the playoffs.

RECORD: 53-29

68-69 25 92-93 PHOENIX SUNS

Phoenix had high expectations going into their 25th Anniversary season in the new America West Arena. Phoenix, behind the June 17, 1992 trade for Charles Barkley which sent three Suns to Philadelphia for the eventual '92-93 NBA MVP, led the NBA with a franchise-record 62 wins. Phoenix also acquired Danny Ainge, Oliver Miller, and elevated Paul Westphal to head coach.

Westphal became the winningest rookie coach in NBA history and coached the West squad to victory at the All-Star game. The Suns began the season without KJ, who missed 31 games due to various injuries. December was perfect as Phoenix tied the NBA's third-best mark for a month with a 14-0 record.

At the All-Star game, Phoenix was represented by the West's leading vote-getter Barkley (16 pts, 4 stls) and reserve Dan Majerle (18 pts, 7 rebs), as well as Westphal and his coaching staff. With a 9-5 record in April, th Suns claimed their second Pacific Division title. The club led the NBA in scoring (113.4), broke the NBA record for 3-pointers made (398) and set franchise home attendance record (779,943). Jerry Colangelo was named Executive of the Year for an unprecedented fourth time. Down 0-2 against the LA Lakers in the first round, the Suns became the first team in history to come back and win 3-2. The Suns downed Seattle in seven games to earn a trip to the NBA Finals against Chicago. Phoenix lost first two games at home, but won two of the next three in Chicago, including Game Three, a triple-overtime affair that saw Majerle tie a Finals record with six three-pointers and KJ set a Finals record with 62 total minutes played. But the Suns came up short as John Paxson buried a three-pointer with 3.9 seconds remaining in Game Six to give the Bulls a 4-2 series win and their third straight NBA Championship.

The Suns added veteran free agents A.C. Green and Joe Kleine to their Western Conference Championship team, but battled injuries throughout the season. Despite losing 211 player games to injury or illness the Suns posted a 56-26 record, the fifth best overall mark in the NBA. Kevin Johnson, who came off an injury-riddled campaign, and Charles Barkley got off to tremendous starts. The Suns posted an impressive 13-2 record in December. But the team's fortunes took a drastic turn for the worse in January. After playing the first two months of the season virtually injury-free, the Suns top two players, KJ and Barkley, went down with injuries. They struggled to a 7-8 mark, their first losing month since November 1991.

Cedric Ceballos, who returned to the line-up after missing the first 29 games, led the team during January and had two 40-point nights in a three game stretch. Green averaged 19.3 points and led the team with 11.4 rebounds. Phoenix bounced back to capture an 8-4 mark in February. KJ, Barkley and Ainge all returned to the lineup. KJ played in his third All-Star game while Barkley, the league's leading vote-getter in All-Star balloting, was unable to play due to injury. With the club healthy, the Suns enjoyed their second-best April in club history. The Suns' march to the playoffs included a seven-game winning streak. KJ had an impressive April, including a Suns-record and NBA-high 25 assists in a win vs San Antonio (4/6). The Suns blazed into the postseason, and beat Golden State 3-0. In Game Three, Barkley scored 56 points, the third highest total ever in an NBA playoff game. The Suns continued to roll. After overcoming a 20-point fourth quarter deficit to take Game One the Suns again came from behind to win Game Two of their second round matchup against the Rockets. But, the eventual champion Houston Rockets were too tough, and battled back to take the series 4-3.

94 PHOENIX SUNS 95

A flurry of off-season activity brought free agents Danny Manning, Dan Schayes and Wayman Tisdale to a talent-laden roster — six current or former All-Stars suited up for the Suns. Wesley Person and Antonio Lang arrived via the '94 NBA draft.

While the team appeared ready to take their final step toward an NBA title, injuries plagued the club early and often. Charles Barkley strained an abdominal muscle during the preseason and missed the first 11 games. KJ sat out 35 games during the year with a variety of leg injuries. Most damaging was the season-ending knee injury Manning suffered on February 6, after averaging 17.9 ppg and 6.0 rpg in 46 games.

Guards Person, Elliot Perry and Dan Majerle enabled the Suns to withstand the injury firestorm and hold the NBA's top mark (38-10) at the break. Person earned a place on the NBA's All-Rookie second team. Perry finished second in voting for the NBA's Most Improved Player award, while Majerle became the first reserve to be voted to start on an All-Star team.

Majerle, Barkley and the rest of the Western All-Stars were coached to a win (139-112) by Suns' head coach Paul Westphal at the 45th annual classic held at the America West Arena.

The Suns won eight of their last nine games to capture their third Pacific Division title and earn the second seed in the Western Conference playoffs with a 59-23 mark.

The Suns swept Portland, 3-0, setting up a rematch with Houston. Gaining momentum in the second round, the Suns won three of the first four contests in the best-of-seven-game series. But the defending champions refused to give up and battled back to win three straight, including an overtime victory in Game Five and a one-point win in Game Seven, on their way to a second straight NBA championship.

Change

It is the only constant in our world. You either manage change or you are managed by change. Lead or be led.

At The Dial Corp, we have been shaping our future by sharpening our focus on today's changing consumers. We've become a Fortune 500 company with more than $3.6 billion in revenues by taking leadership positions in many areas of consumer products and services.

Names you know and trust. Like Dial soap and Dial liquid antibacterial soap. Breck hair care products. Purex bleach and laundry detergent. Brillo. Renuzit. Premier Cruise Lines. Travelers Express money orders. Dobbs International inflight catering.

The Dial Corp

Serving today's consumer.

NBA PLAYOFF FORMAT EXPLAINED

A total of 16 teams will qualify for the 1996 NBA Playoffs, the four division winners and the next six teams in each conference according to their won-lost record, regardless of division. The First Round is best-of-5 (2-2-1), each succeeding round, including the NBA World Championship Series, is best-of-7.

In every series the home-court advantage in the extra game goes to the team with the better record during the regular season, regardless of its standing in the division race. Thus, if a division winner plays a second-place team from another division that had a better record, the second-place team would get the home-court advantage.

In determining the playoff matchups, the eight qualifiers in each conference must first be ranked. The division winner with the better record becomes Team 1, the other division winner becomes Team 2 and the remaining 6 qualifiers are ranked Teams 3 through 8 according to their records. The playoff pairings for the First Round are Team 1 vs 8, 2 vs 7, 3 vs 6, and 4 vs 5 in each conference. In the Conference Semifinals, the winner of pairing 1-8 plays the winner of pairing 4-5 and the winner of pairing 2-7 plays the winner of pairing 3-6.

The World Championship Series will be played on a 2-3-2 basis, the team with the better regular-season record getting the home-court advantage for the first two and last two games. Other best-of-7 series are 2-2-1-1-1.

Following are the playoff pairings:

Note: Team 1 in each conference is the division winner with the better record. Team 2 is the other division winner and Teams 3-8 are ranked according to their regular-season winning percentage.

NBA PLAYOFF FORMAT
TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES for PLAYOFFS

Following is the tie-breaking procedure that is used to determine teams qualifying for the NBA Playoffs.

Two team ties:

1. Results of games against each other.
2. Winning percentage within own conference.
3. Winning percentage within own division (only if tied teams are in same division).
4. Winning percentage against playoff opponents in own conference.
5. Point differential in games against each other.
6. Point differential between offense and defense.

Multiple team ties:

1. Cumulative winning percentage in total games involving all tied teams.
2. Winning percentage within own conference.
3. Winning percentage within own division (only if tied teams are in same division).
4. Winning percentage against playoff opponents in own conference.
5. Point differential between offense and defense.

Notes:

1. Any ties involving the championship of a division are broken first.
2. If a multiple-team tie is reduced to a two-team tie at any point using the above criteria, that situation is then resolved by using the procedures outlined for two team ties.

PHOENIX SUNS DANCE TEAM

Kimberly Lewis
Dance Team Coordinator

The Phoenix Suns Dance Team is one of the most respected dance lines in pro sports. Since their inception in 1990, the Suns Dance Team has performed on and off the court. Each girl is required to do a minimum of 20 charity appearances, most in conjunction with the Suns' community relations department. They include everything from Stay in School rallies to hospital visits. They have also received national and international attention, performing in MTV's Rock-N-Jock basketball game, the McDonald's Open in Munich, Germany and the World Championships in Toronto, where they not only performed for the Dream Team II games, but for other teams as well.

PHOENIX SUNS COMMUNITY RELATIONS

NEAL WALK
SPEAKERS' BUREAU COORDINATOR

Neal Walk has served as a Phoenix Suns spokesman in the community relations department since 1988. He spends most of his time coordinating the Suns speakers bureau. The alumni group, made up of former Suns' players living in the Valley, makes public and community relations appearances throughout Arizona. He also works with school and community groups and other organizations to further awareness of handicapped issues in Arizona.

A former NBA and Suns' player, Walk was the Suns' first-round pick in the 1969 college draft and played for Phoenix for five seasons. He also played parts of three other seasons with the New Orleans Jazz and New York Knicks. He averaged 12.6 points and 9.4 rebounds for his eight-year NBA career. His best statistical season with the Suns was 1972-73, when he averaged 20.2 points and 12.4 rebounds. He is the only Suns' center to ever grab more than 1,000 rebounds in a season.

At the University of Florida, Walk was a two-time All-American and was the only major college player in the country to rank among the top 10 in both scoring and rebounding. During his junior year, he was the nation's top rebounder with an average of 19.8 boards per game.

Walk was born in Cleveland, Ohio, on July 29, 1948. He has been confined to a wheelchair since undergoing surgery for the removal of a tumor from his spinal cord in 1987. He was inducted into the Jewish Sports Hall of Fame in 1990 and received the prestigious Victory Award for Arizona in 1991 and the Gene Autry Courage Award in 1995.

CONNIE HAWKINS
COMM. RELATIONS REPRESENTATIVE

Connie Hawkins returned to the Suns in 1992 as a spokesman in the Community Relations Department. "The Hawk" spends most of his time making public and community relations appearances as well as conducting youth basketball clinics around the Valley. He works extensively with the City of Phoenix, conducting summer basketball clinics at the America West Arena practice court. He played an integral part in the NBA's Stay in School program during the 1995 All-Star game that was held at the America West Arena.

Hawk's pro career began in 1961 with the Pittsburgh Rens of the American Basketball League where, as a 19-year-old rookie, he was named the league's Most Valuable Player. Hawkins then dazzled fans with his creative showmanship for four seasons with the Harlem Globetrotters before joining the ABA's Minnesota Pipers in 1967. He averaged over 30 points during that first season en route to earning the league's MVP honors.

Hawk joined the NBA with the Suns in the 1969-70 season. Phoenix won his rights by virtue of a coin flip with the Seattle SuperSonics during the summer of 1969 and signed him to a multi-year contract. He played four seasons with the Suns and represented the team each year at the All-Star game. In 1969-70, he led the team in scoring with 24.6 points per game and was named to the All-Pro first team. He averaged nearly 21 points and over 8 rebounds per contest during his stay in Phoenix. Hawk played three more seasons in the NBA, two for Los Angeles and his final year in Atlanta. On May 11, 1992, Hawkins was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

Hawk was born July 17, 1942 in Brooklyn, NY. There he attended Boys High School and was a Prep All-American in 1960. He also earned two letters in track at Boys High. He teamed with the legendary John McEnroe in the Nike Celebrity Doubles tennis exhibition September of 1994, and with Todd Martin in the Gila River Tennis Jackpot in 1995.

FRANK JOHNSON
COMM. RELATIONS REPRESENTATIVE

Upon walking off the Suns' court for the last time in 1994, Frank Johnson walked right into the Suns' community relations department. And just like he did during his 10-year playing career, Johnson was always running. From his motivational speeches at more than 100 schools across the state to the basketball clinics he held for the Phoenix Boys and Girls Club and the YMCA, Johnson had a busy rookie year. He was the Suns' spokesman for the United Way and a board member for the National Association of Police Athletic Leagues and the NAACP. For the 1995-96 season, he has been named one of the national spokepersons for the NBA's "Stay-in-School" program.

Originally a first round draft pick of the Washington Bullets (11th overall) in the 1981 NBA Draft, Johnson's first eight seasons in the NBA were spent with the Bullets and Houston Rockets and the his final two were with the Suns. In 147 games as a Sun, Johnson averaged 4.5 points. He averaged 3.2 points in the postseason for the Suns' 1993 NBA Finals squad. He and wife, Amy, have two daughters: Natalie and Lindsay.

NBA COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The NBA, its teams and players share a commitment to supporting programs dedicated to improving the quality of life for all people.

For years, the NBA has created and implemented programs league-wide to address important social issues, with special emphasis on helping young people. This year's youth-based education programs include: the NBA "Stay in School" program, created to encourage students to graduate from high school through visits by NBA players and coaches; and conflict resolution workshops designed to train teachers and educate students in methods of resolving conflict without violence. Public service announcements and educational materials also focus on this anti-violence message.

The NBA continues its support of CARE, the National Committee to Prevent Child Abuse and Special Olympics through television and radio public service announcements and other awareness-building efforts. The NBA also creates PSAs in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and Black History Month each year.

In addition, the NBA's 29 teams make a difference, across the United States and Canada, through active involvement in many outreach efforts pertinent to the needs of their respective communities.

STAY IN SCHOOL

Last season the Suns played host to NBA All-Star Weekend. But long after Shaq, Grant and Mitch made their mark on the court, a legacy more significant than the game itself was left behind: Reaching out to the youth of our community through the NBA "Stay in School" program.

In recognition of the Weekend, the Suns merged their "Stay in School" program with the NBA's version in an effort to address the nation's critical high school dropout problem.

The program, which included 50 Maricopa County middle schools, was comprised of school assemblies, contests and incentive items and the "Stay in School Celebration," all created to encourage improvement in school attendance, attitude and achievement.

16,000 students were the guests of honor at the America West Arena as a reward for outstanding program involvement. The students were entertained by Suns' Charles Barkley, Joe Kleine, Elliot Perry and Dan Majerle. Joined by Ahmad Rashad and Willow Bay of "NBA Inside Stuff," national recording artists Brandy and Boyz II Men and other network and NBA stars, the rally was broadcast live by NBC, TNT, Nickelodeon and BET.

THE GORILLA'S HOOPMARKS READING PROGRAM

For the fourth season, the Suns and the Phoenix Public Library teamed up to offer Valley youths "The Gorilla's Hoopmarks Reading Program;" a program that uses incentives to encourage children to read.

A Hoopmark is a bookmark which features an action photo of a Suns player on the front and his statistics on the back. Kids earn Hoopmarks based on the number of books they read (or for young children, the number of books read to them).

14,500 children participated in the 12-week program, up from just 8,000 the first year. Also offered in Spanish, nearly 900 Spanish-speaking youths took advantage of the program.

Sponsored by Smith's Food & Drug Centers and the Diary Council of Arizona, "Hoopmarks" was available exclusively through the Phoenix Public Library.

The Suns also sponsored "Take Time-Out to Read," a summer program offererd through the Phoenix Public Library. For reading a set amount of books, more than 32,000 children earned prizes, including a poster of the Gorilla (below).

HOT SHOTS WITH THE PHOENIX SUNS

Across town, the Suns teamed up with the Glendale Public Library to offer "Hot Shots with the Phoenix Suns." This incentive based program offered students in grades 7-12 the chance to win Suns game tickets and other merchandise in exchange for reading for a specified period of time.

PHOENIX SUNS CHARITIES

Phoenix Suns Charities (PSC), the team's non-profit foundation, contributes to charitable organizations that provide services that promote the positive growth and development of Arizona's children. Since its inception in 1989, PSC has invested more than $1.3 million dollars in Arizona's children.

Last season, the foundation granted nearly $500,000 to 72 youth organizations, and when added to the Suns' corporate contributions, the Suns donated more than $1,000,000 to Arizona charities during the 1994-95 season.

In addition to its grant-making function, PSC also sponsors a scholarship program. Last year, SunStudents College Scholarship awarded 10 Arizona high school seniors $1,000 each to support their college education.

To raise those funds, PSC's board of directors and Suns staff coordinated several events including the Suns Charities Scramble Golf Tournament and the Courtside Classic, a black-tie dinner/auction which attracted nearly 1,000 guests and was hosted by all of the Suns players and coaches.

HAWK & WALK SUMMER YOUTH BASKETBALL

Unfortunately for some kids, summer means having little to do and lots of time to do it. But for more than 1,000 Valley youths, the Suns helped fill the void through the second annual Hawk & Walk Summer Youth Basketball Camps.

Suns legends Connie Hawkins and Neal Walk managed the camps at the AWA Practice Court from July-August. Through the City of Phoenix Housing Department, the Suns invited kids ages 6-15 living in local housing projects to attend the activities which included basketball drills, games, and special appearances by Suns celebrities.

SUNS ALUMNI SPEAKERS BUREAU

Perhaps past their prime on the court, fifteen former Suns players who live in the Valley are still at their peak off the court. Members of the Suns Alumni Speakers Bureau came off the bench more than 40 times last season to represent the Suns at various community events.

SAMARITAN WHEELCHAIR SUNS BASKETBALL

Sponsored by the Suns, Samaritan Health System and America West Airlines, and coached by former Sun Jeff Cook (1979-83, 1987-88), the team again played in the National Wheelchair Basketball Association.

The squad made All-Star Weekend history last season by being the first wheelchair team to participate in the festivities. They also visited a number of local schools and youth groups demonstrating to kids the importance of teamwork and overcoming challenges.

PHOENIX SUNS EXCHANGE CLUB

Each time the Suns play the Trail Blazers in Oregon, six Boys & Girls Club members head to Portland as guests of America West Airlines and the Suns. These children, ages 11-14, are nominated by their school teachers and selected by Boys & Girls Club staff as an incentive for academic achievement, school attendance and good citizenship. The Portland Boys & Girls Clubs also participate in the program by sending youths to Phoenix when their team is in town.

BOYS & GIRLS CLUB BASKETBALL LEAGUE

For the past 27 years, the Suns have sponsored this statewide youth basketball league, which grew last season to include more than 5,200 12-13 year old boys and girls and 1,000 volunteer coaches. In March, the Suns hosted the league's championship game at AWA and provided tickets to the Suns game immediately following the youth game.

EASTER SEALS BASKETBALL SHOOT-OUT

During a one-month span last year, Valley students raised $80,000 for the Arizona Easter Seal Society by participating in the Suns-sponsored 16th Annual Easter Seals Basketball Shoot-Out.

Children statewide in grades K-12 gathered pledges for the number of baskets they made during a five-minute time span. And for their efforts, they received Suns goodies, including autographed balls and photos, tickets to Suns games and much more.

CYSTIC FIBROSIS 65 ROSES SPORTS CLUB

The phrase "65 Roses" is used by doctors and counselors to teach young children how to pronounce the disease with which they are afflicted -- Cystic Fibrosis. It is also the namesake for one of CF's most substantial fund-raisers - the 65 Roses Sports Club.

The 65 Roses Club is a fund-raising program where, for a premium donation, members enjoy the opportunity to attend Suns games and meet the players. Members also attend the annual Tip-Off Gala, which was hosted this past season by CF spokesman Danny Manning.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In July, representatives from the Suns organization helped St. Vincent de Paul celebrate its 20 millionth meal served to the Valley's homeless by serving lunch at its downtown Phoenix dining room.

MAKE-A-WISH

For terminally ill children, life and the world around them takes on a whole new meaning. Their needs and desires are far different from those blessed with good health. And as they near their certain fate and are left with one final wish, many children turn to the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Phoenix Suns.

Last season, 23 children were granted their final wish... a wish to meet a Suns player. The players fulfilling those wishes were Charles Barkley, Kevin Johnson and Dan Majerle.

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME...GAMES

Every year during the holiday season, the Suns organization collects a variety of items at home games for Arizona's needy. Last year, Suns fans came through in a big way by donating tens of thousands of toys, shoes and food stuff for Toys for Tots, Shoes for the Homeless and the Salvation Army respectively.

AMERICA WEST ARENA

Since its debut in June 1992, the America West Arena has played host to the world's best sporting events, concerts, and family shows. This one-million-square-foot, multi-use facility is also home of the Phoenix Suns. In fact, the Arena was chosen as host of the 1995 NBA All-Star Game. The sheer variety of events held here — arena football, indoor soccer, world-class ice skating, and National Hockey League exhibitions, to name a few — have impressed the Phoenix community, which has embraced the Arena as its favorite stop for sports and entertainment.

During the 1993-94 season, NBA insiders voted AWA the best place to play in the NBA. Even more significant is that it won not for its intimate design, nor its plush backstage accommodations, nor its many special amenities. We won because our people treat every visitor like a specially-invited guest. In just its first year, the Arena was voted "Best New Concert Venue" by Pollstar Magazine and "New Venue of the Year" by Performance Magazine.

These accolades can be attributed to the Arena management's firm commitment, led by General Manager Robert Machen, to a quality product combined with superior service. The Arena was designed for flexibility, capable of hosting a 20,000-seat boxing match, a 5,000-seat concert and anything in between. From our spacious backstage accommodations to our mid-level private suites to our intimate bowl area, the Arena is enjoyed by event managers and spectators alike.

Named for Phoenix's hometown airline, the America West Arena stands in tribute to an unprecedented public/private partnership, joining the city of Phoenix, America West Airlines and the Phoenix Suns in a 40-year agreement. Phoenix Suns President and CEO Jerry Colangelo led the charge to create an Arena that was designed specifically for basketball and located in Phoenix's revitalized downtown area.

Launching its fourth year of operation, the Arena is indeed the most visible evidence that the revitalization plan is a success. More than two million people visited the downtown area for Arena events last year, enabling restaurants, nightclubs, museums and shops to thrive. That kind of growth attracts attention and many new businesses are taking another look at downtown Phoenix.
